Welcome to Keeneland's 2016 November Breeding Stock Sale

Keeneland has cataloged 4,762 horses for its world-renowned 2016 November Breeding Stock Sale, to be held Nov. 8-20. "Keeneland's November Breeding Stock Sale is the largest sale of its kind in the world and is remarkable because of the unparalleled diversity and depth in its offerings," Keeneland Vice President of Racing and Sales Bob Elliston said. "Breeders from around the world will be here to obtain broodmares and broodmare prospects to add to or establish their programs, while others from an equally wide range of locations will set their sights on the sale's weanlings and horses of racing age."

Among the quality individuals featured in the 2016 November Sale are such Grade 1 stakes-quality mares as champion Stellar Wind, Celestine, Lady Eli, My Conquest-dory (in foal to Tapit), Paola Queen, Peace and War (in foal to Tapit), Personal Diary, Street Fancy and Secret Gesture (GB) (in foal to War Front).

November Breeding Stock Sale

73rd Annual

Keeneland/Photos by Z

The November Breeding Stock Sale is the world's premier Thoroughbred auction of its type in terms of total sales and average. The sale, conducted annually since 1944, includes broodmares, weanlings, horses of racing age, racing and broodmare prospects, stallions, stallion shares and seasons. With the exception of the early years and dispersals, yearlings have not been sold during November.

The 2015 November Sale immediately followed the Breeders' Cup World Championships at Keeneland.

Champion and broodmare prospect Take Charge Brandi sold for $6 million to be the most expensive Thoroughbred sold at public auction in the world in 2015.

Prominent November Sale Consignors

Denali Stud

Owners: Craig and Holly Bendoroff
Location: Paris, Ky.
Website: denalistud.com

Craig Bendoroff

Craig Bendoroff was a jockey in New Jersey in the early 1970s until a spill at Garden State Park in 1974 left him without the use of his right arm, forcing him to explore other career paths within the industry. The Bendoroffs each gained experience working in various bloodstock and sales capacities, and in 1990 they opened Denali Stud. "Denali" is derived from the name given by the Eskimos to Mt. McKinley and means "the great one." Today, Denali covers 700 acres.

In the late 1990s, Bob Lewis and his wife, Beverly, sent their champion racemare Serena's Song to Denali when she was retired. Denali has sold several of Serena Song's offspring, including Group 1 winner Sophisticat, by Storm Cat, for $3.4 million at the 2000 Keeneland July Selected Yearling Sale; Grade 2 winner Harlington, by Unbridled, for $2.8 million at the 2003 Keeneland September Yearling Sale; and Colourful Score, a colt by Storm Cat, for $3.5 million, at the 2005 September Sale.

Among Denali's achievements at Keeneland sales are two milestones from the November Sale. In 1998, Denali recorded its first seven-figure sale when it sold the Seattle Slew mare Calendar Lady, in foal to Mr. Prospector, for $1.1 million to Reynolds Bell Jr., agent. In 2008, Denali Stud, agent, sold future champion Uncle Mo as a weanling to Moon Bloodstock for $160,000.

Eaton Sales

Owner: J. Reiley McDonald
Location: Lexington
Website: eatonsales.com

Background: Eaton Sales Inc. is owned by Reiley McDonald, who purchased the sales agency from its founder, the late Lee Eaton, in the 1990s.

At the 2015 Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale, Eaton sold 72 horses for a grand total of $14,869,000. Among them was the sale's highest-priced weanling, a daughter of War Front out of multiple Grade 1 winner Take Charge Lady sold to Whisper Hill Farm for $3.2 million. Eaton's two other seven-figure sellers also were weanling fillies: a daughter of Tapit-Refugee sold to Crupi's New Castle for $1.3 million and a daughter of Galileo (IRE)-Untouched Talent sold to Hunter Valley Farm for $1.2 million.

In 2004, Eaton Sales, agent, purchased Take Charge Lady, a four-time Keeneland graded stakes winner in foal to Seeking the Gold, for $4.2 million at the November Sale. From Take Charge Lady, Eaton bred Grade 1 winner Take Charge Indy, a colt by A.P. Indy colt, and 2013 champion 3-year-old male Will Take Charge, a colt by Unbridled's Song.

McDonald, a Maryland native, has a degree in animal sciences from Cornell University. He worked at various Maryland race tracks as an exercise rider and assistant trainer. McDonald was an officer at another Thoroughbred auction house prior to buying Eaton Sales. He is a Keeneland Director.

Eaton Sales served as agent for the dispersal of the W.T. Young family's Overbrook Farm, which in 2009-2010 sold 205 horses for $38,606,000. At the time, the dispersal was the second largest in Keeneland sales history. It is now third behind the Edward P. Evans Spring Hill Farm dispersal, which sold 221 horses for $62,364,000 million in 2011-2012, and the Nelson Bunker Hunt dispersal, which sold 580 horses for $46,912,800 in 1988.

Successful horses Eaton Sales, agent, has sold as weanlings at the November Sale include two future Breeders' Cup winners: 2014 Juvenile Turf (G1) winner Hootenanny, purchased in 2012 by Winding Oaks Farm for $120,000 in 2012, and 2008 Filly and Mare Turf (G1) winner Forever Together, sold in 2004 to Alistair Roden Bloodstock for $30,000.

Eaton Sales sold 2016 Grade 1 winner Ca-vorting to Stonestreet Stables for $360,000 when she was a weanling at the 2012 November Sale.

Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency

President: John G. Sikura
Location: Lexington
Website: hillndalefarms.com

Background: The leading consignor at Keeneland's 2015 November Breeding Stock Sale, Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency sold 97 horses for $28,392,700. Among them was the auction's highest-priced horse, champion Take Charge Brandi, at $6 million, the most paid for a Thoroughbred at public auction anywhere in the world last year.

Sikura not only sold Take Charge Brandi on behalf of owner Willis D. Horton, he bought her in the name of Hill 'n' Dale Equine.

Hill 'n' Dale sold a total of eight horses that brought seven figures or more at the 2015 November Sale, including two weanlings by War Front by $2.6 million and $2 million.

Sikura, a Keeneland Director, was mentored by his father, John Sikura, Jr., a Canadian entrepreneur and founder of Hill 'n' Dale Farm in Ontario. The younger Sikura grew up attending the sales and races with his father, and he learned the business while working at Hill 'n' Dale's Kentucky division in the 1980s.

John Sikura

Following the death of his father in 1994, Sikura began to build the Kentucky farm into a prominent breeding and sales operation. Hill 'n' Dale encompasses 1,300 acres and stands 14 stallions, including Curlin, Midnight Lute and Stormy Atlantic. The farm is the final resting place of 1977 Triple Crown winner and leading sire Seattle Slew.

At the 2007 November Sale, Hill 'n' Dale Sales Agency, agent for Swettenham Stud, sold the highest-priced horse in the sale's history – Playful Act (IRE) – for $10.5 million. The amount is the third-highest price

Costello and Duignan first became partners when they created a successful pinhooking operation called "The Lads."

Paramount has consigned other high-priced horses to the November Sale. In 2006, Paramount, agent for Ballymacoll Stud Farm, sold the weanling Isla Canela for $2.4 million. The daughter of Gone West is out of Breeders' Cup Filly and Mare Turf (G1) winner Islington (IRE).

Taylor Made Sales Agency

Partners: Duncan, Ben, Frank and Mark Taylor; Pat Payne

Location: Nicholasville, Ky.

Website: taylormadeadvantage.com

Background: Taylor Made Sales Agency has ranked as the Keeneland November Breeding Stock Sale's leading consignor 18 times since 1990. Last year, the operation was the sale's second-leading consignor when it sold 228 horses for $21,855,800 led by Grade 1 winner Hard Not to Like, purchased by DATTT Farm for $2.2 million.

Taylor Made's other two seven-figure sellers at the 2015 November Sale were Canadian champion Spring in the Air, sold for $1.65 million to Nawara Stud/Hugo Merry Bloodstock, agent, and Grade 1 winner Sunset Glow, sold to Pursuit of Success for $1,375,000.

In 1976, Taylor Made was founded as a boarding operation by Duncan Taylor, the eldest son of noted horseman Joe Taylor who was 19 years old at the time. Joe Taylor, an acknowledged authority on Thoroughbred breeding, developed John Gaines' Gainesway Farm into a leading stallion farm during his 40-year management.

Taylor Made quickly evolved into a full-service breeding and sales facility. Joining Duncan, a Keeneland Director who is Taylor Made's president and CEO in its operation, are his brothers Ben (vice president of stallions), Frank (vice president of boarding) and Mark (vice president of marketing and public sales operations). Pat Payne (vice president of sales) also is a partner.

Represented by its first Keeneland consignment in 1978, Taylor Made, according to its website, has sold more than $1.6 billion in Thoroughbreds. Future champions sold at Keeneland's September Yearling Sale are Anees, Farda Amiga and Ashado. Sold as a yearling for $170,000, Ashado brought $9 million, a Keeneland record for a broodmare prospect, when Taylor Made consigned her to the 2005 November Sale. ## Calumet Farm

Principal: Brad Kelley
Manager: Eddie Kane
Location: Lexington
Website: calumetfarm.com

Background: In 2015, Calumet Farm added significantly to its bloodstock holdings by purchasing 71 horses for $8,717,000 at Keeneland's November Breeding Stock Sale. Calumet bought more horses than any other buyer at the November Sale and was the sale's second-leading buyer by total amount spent.

At $575,000, Calumet's highest-priced purchase at the sale was Grade 2 winner Teammate, who was in foal to Candy Ride (ARG).

Since 2012, successful businessman Brad Kelley has overseen Calumet, one of the most famous horse farms in North America and Keeneland's neighbor. In May 2013, Nicole Russo of Daily Racing Form described Calumet's notable history:

"Calumet has lived through a number of transformations, morphing from a Standardbred facility into an elite Thoroughbred nursery as it passed through the Wright family, campaigning two homebred Triple Crown winners, and, decades later, surviving an episode of bankruptcy. Today, the farm is in the hands of Kelley, a deeply private billionaire with a passion for racing."

Eddie Kane

the son of Awesome Again at Keeneland's September Yearling Sale.

Racing in the name of Kelley's Bluegrass Hall LLC, Hightail won the 2012 Breeders' Cup Juvenile Sprint. Hightail is another graduate of the 2011 September Sale. D. Wayne Lukas trained Hightail and Oxbow.

With Kelley at the helm, Calumet scored its first win at Keeneland during the 2014 Spring Meet.

Calumet is home to 14 stallions in Kentucky and three other stallions in Arkansas, Indiana and Ohio. Among them is champion and dual classic winner Smarty Jones, who stands in Kentucky.

Coolmore Stud

Managing Partner: John Magnier
Representative: M.V. Magnier
Headquarters: Fethard, County Tipperary, Ireland
Website: coolmore.com

Background: Coolmore's vast operation is headquartered in Fethard, County Tipperary, and also has farms in Kentucky at Ashford Stud near Versailles and in Australia at Hunter Valley in New South Wales. John Magnier, a longtime patron of Keeneland sales, is managing partner of Coolmore. His son, M.V. Magnier, has represented Coolmore at recent Keeneland sales.

At Keeneland's 2015 November Breeding Stock Sale, M.V. Magnier spent $2.6 million on a weanling colt by War Front whose third dam is Racing Hall of Famer Serena's Song. The weanling is a half-brother to Grade 1 winner Honor Code and Grade 2 winner Noble Tune.

In 2014, Magnier paid $3.6 million for Grade 3 winner Naples Bay, a half-sister to leading sire Medaglia d'Oro in foal to War Front, at the November Sale. In 2013, he signed the November Sale-topping $4 million ticket on the multiple graded stakes-winning mare Awesome Maria, sold in foal to Giant's Causeway. She was consigned by Lane's End, Agent for the Complete Dispersal of E. Paul Robsham Stables LLC.

John Magnier, whose family was prominently associated with jumpers in Ireland, helped establish Coolmore as one of the world's leading stallion operations. In 1975, legendary trainer Vincent O'Brien tapped Magnier to manage Coolmore for O'Brien and his partner, Robert Sangster. Their association resulted in Coolmore's domination of the European classics during the late 1970s and 1980s.

Today, Coolmore Ireland stands such leading stallions as Galileo (IRE) and Danehill Dancer, while 2015 Triple Crown winner American Pharoah, Giant's Causeway and Uncle Mo are among the stallions at Ashford.

Coolmore also encompasses the famed Ballydoyle training yard, where Vincent O'Brien conditioned such champions as Sir Ivor, Nijinsky II, Alleged, Storm Bird and Sadler's Wells, and today serves as home base for Irish champion trainer Aidan O'Brien (no relation).

Either individually or in various partnerships, the Magniers, Tabor, and Smith have been represented by numerous Group or Grade 1 winners and champions in Europe and the U.S.
