About the Keeneland Association

Located in the heart of Central Kentucky and surrounded by acres of Kentucky Bluegrass, Keeneland is a worldwide attraction with an important role in Thoroughbred breeding and racing.

The Keeneland Association was founded 90 years ago by a group of prominent Central Kentucky breeders with a goal, outlined in the original prospectus, to "create a model race track to perpetuate and improve the sport and to provide a course that is intended to serve as a symbol of the fine traditions of Thoroughbred racing."

Today Keeneland is a privately held company with a not-for-profit mission. Earnings are reinvested in the operation in the form of higher purses for horsemen and capital improvements, with a substantial portion used for industry innovations, promotion and charitable contributions. Keeneland pays taxes, but not dividends, and its Directors serve without compensation.

As the world's largest Thoroughbred auction house, Keeneland conducts five onsite sales annually and in 2024 debuted the Championship Sale days before the Breeders' Cup World Championships. Graduates of Keeneland sales include 2018 Triple Crown winner and Horse of the Year Justify along with horses that have won 145 Breeders' Cup races.

Each April and October, the sport's leading owners, trainers and jockeys are at Keeneland to compete for some of North America's richest purses. Anchoring the Spring Meet are the $1.25 million Toyota Blue Grass (G1) and the $750,000 Central Bank Ashland (G1), both major targets of top 3-year-olds. Keeneland's Fall Meet opens with Fall Stars Weekend, featuring 11 stakes led by the $1.25 million Coolmore Turf Mile (G1). Eight Fall Meet stakes are Breeders' Cup Challenge races, awarding each winner a berth in the World Championships.

Keeneland hosted the Breeders' Cup in 2015, 2020 and 2022 and will again on Oct. 30-31.

New Paddock Building, Other Enhancements Welcome Fans

A majestic structure along Keeneland's east side, the new Paddock Building houses centrally located saddling stalls (at left), a new Jockeys Quarters and a variety of ticketed venues available to the public for the first time for the 2026 Spring Meet. Keeneland also will use the Paddock Building during its auctions and for private events.

Keeneland is celebrating an exciting chapter during the 2026 Spring Meet with the debut of the interior hospitality spaces within its newly constructed Paddock Building. Designed to honor Keeneland's timeless traditions, the Paddock Building reflects the organization's commitment to attracting new fans and enhancing the way guests experience fresh, elevated hospitality.

"The Paddock Building represents an investment in the Thoroughbred industry and furthers Keeneland's mission to support and grow the sport," Keeneland President and CEO Shannon Arvin said. "It speaks to our confidence in racing's future while creating new, meaningful ways to engage guests year-round."

The Paddock Building reflects Keeneland's heritage while reimagining the race day for today's fans. Lexington-based designer Matthew Carter, celebrated for his skill in blending timeless Southern elegance with fresh interiors, led the interior design process.

Designed for year-round use, the Paddock Building will be a premier setting for race meets, auctions and private events. The new facility introduces more than 1,000 public dining tickets each race day, offering guests a range of distinctive dining options alongside the reimagined Saddling Paddock and Stakes Winner's Circle, both of which debuted during the 2025 Fall Meet. Each venue provides a unique vantage point into the pageantry and preparation that define a race day at Keeneland.

Here are the new venues in the Paddock Building:

1936 Room: Commemorating the year Keeneland opened for racing, this all-inclusive hospitality space on the north side has lounge seating, high-top tables, passed heavy hors d'oeuvres and premium bar service in a reception-style setting. Guests will enjoy an up-close view as jockeys pass through the room on their way to the Saddling Paddock before each race. The room also grants exclusive access to the Paddock Lawn, a landscaped green space beside the Saddling Paddock.

Sycamore Room: Offering a la carte high-end dining featuring classic American cuisine, the room named for the iconic tree at Keeneland is on the south end of the first floor and is adjacent to the Stakes Winner's Circle.

Dogwood Room: This second-floor venue, which overlooks the Saddling Paddock, features buffet-style dining.

Ivy Room: This space on the second floor complements the Dogwood Room atmosphere and offerings with traditional Keeneland dining. The room is for private group gatherings and is not included in public ticket offerings.

The Rooftop: This area on the third floor has two distinct spaces with sweeping views of the saddling paddock and the entire Keeneland campus: a fully enclosed premium indoor dining room and a covered outdoor space anchored by a bar and patio seating.

Each venue in the Paddock Building will follow a business casual dress code.

Nakatomi and jockey Irad Ortiz Jr. tour the Saddling Paddock before winning the Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix (G2) during the 2025 Fall Meet.

After taking the Coolmore Turf Mile (G1) during the 2025 Fall Meet, Rhetorical and jockey Irad Ortiz Jr. join trainer Will Walden and other connections in the new Stakes Winner's Circle.

The two bronze statutes that grace the stone gates in the Stakes Winner's Circle leading to the Directors Room are called "Horse and Jockey" by Isidore Bonheur.

Repositioned Saddling Paddock among Enhancements

Those attending the 2025 Fall Meet were the first to experience the initial phase of Keeneland's construction enhancements. They include:

- East Entrance and East Plaza along with expanded walkways at the South and East Entrances.
- Centrally located saddling stalls and Saddling Paddock enhancements. Saddling stalls have been repositioned along the east side of the Paddock, giving fans improved visibility of horses and their connections as they prepare for each race. This layout increases safety in the Paddock.
- Jockeys Quarters and jockey entry. A new Jockeys Quarters located beneath the Paddock Building features modernized locker rooms, fitness area, steam and sauna amenities and other race-day essentials. Riders enter the Saddling Paddock through a new centralized location from the Paddock Building.
- Stakes Winner's Circle. Formerly known as the Walking Ring, this area now is where fans can share in the thrill of victory alongside the winners of all stakes races. Trophy presentations following graded stakes races formerly were conducted on the Keeneland turf course. Gracing the stone gates in the area are two bronze statues: "Horse and Jockey" by Isidore Bonheur.

In addition, a two-story Operations Building was built within walking distance of the race track and Sales Pavilion. This structure enables Keeneland to consolidate core business and operations teams under one roof in an updated work environment.

New structures are architecturally consistent with the track's Clubhouse, built in the 1930s, and Grandstand and feature the two-over-two pattern of stonework unique to Keeneland.

Begun in January 2024, the construction project is the largest undertaking in Keeneland history and marks the first major construction here since Keeneland Library opened in 2002.

A History of Giving Back

In 1936, Keeneland was created as a model race track for the Thoroughbred industry. Toward our founding mission, revenues from racing and sales operations are reinvested in the horse industry, funding purse money for our world-class racing program and supporting marketing and research initiatives in the areas of equine safety and welfare.

Our founders instilled a vision for contributing to the betterment of racing and to the Central Kentucky community. We focus charitable giving on causes related to the Thoroughbred industry, arts and culture, community, education and health and human services.

In 2025, Keeneland contributed more than $1.2 million to organizations across Central Kentucky and the Thoroughbred industry through a mix of financial and in-kind sponsorships. We continued to team with corporate and race sponsors and industry partners who share our mission to enhance the quality of life in the community and the state.

One of Keeneland's oldest partners in philanthropic endeavors is Maker's Mark, which during the 1958 Fall Meet began selling its bourbon to racing fans and for many years has produced commemorative bottles with Keeneland to support a range of worthwhile activities.

In 2024, Keeneland and Maker's Mark launched "Greats of the Gate," a 10-year bottle series celebrating Thoroughbred racing's most iconic horses and featuring a different horse each year. Proceeds from the 2025 bottles, which recognized the legendary 19th century racehorse and stallion Lexington, benefit Kentucky Classic Arts, Kentucky Harvest, Art Center of the Bluegrass and Blue Grass Farms Charities.

Other initiatives last year included:

College Scholarship Day Presented by Lane's End: Thousands of students participate in the popular event each race meet that awards ten $2,000 scholarships provided by Keeneland and the Kentucky Thoroughbred Association and two $10,000 scholarships provided by Lane's End.

Heroes Day: Event recognizes members of the military, first responders, law enforcement, EMTs, health care workers and their families with free admission and lunch provided by Marriott Griffin Gate (Spring Meet) and City Barbeque (Fall Meet) along with children's activities, a spectacular flag unfurling on the main track and special recognitions. Earlier in the week before the event, Bad Ass Coffee served local fire and police coffee and pastries, while City Barbeque provided lunch and bread pudding to 150 veterans at the Lexington Veterans Medical Center (Troy Bowling Campus) at the University of Kentucky.

Jockey Autograph Signing: Members of the Keeneland jockey colony joined retired riders for autograph sessions each race meet that raised a total of $11,695 for the Permanently Disabled Jockeys Fund. In April, Keeneland partnered with Racing Hall of Fame riders, leading active jockeys and racing personalities to raise a record $445,000 during the seventh annual PDJF Telethon Presented by Lane's End.

During the 18th Make-A-Wish Day in October, Keeneland teamed with local Thoroughbred farms and organizations to grant wishes for 11 children. The children and their families took part in a VIP race-day experience complete with presenting a trophy after each race, meeting jockeys and experiencing all the excitement of a race day.

Teacher Appreciation Day: During the Fall Meet, Keeneland, Coca-Cola and UPS honored teachers, educators and staff with free admission, prize giveaways and complimentary drinks. Keeneland also recognized educators with Fayette County schools.

Additional donations during the Spring Meet included:

$10,000 from Toyota and Keeneland to the YMCA of Central Kentucky.

Barbara Banke's Stonestreet partnered with Kentucky Gov. Andy Beshear's office and Keeneland to highlight Team Kentucky Storm Relief and encourage donations to assist people impacted by severe weather around the state.

More Fall Meet donations included:

$200,000 from Bank of America each to Habitat for Humanity of Metro Louisville and Lexington Habitat for Humanity.

$10,000 from Juddmonte and Keeneland to the Kentucky Equine Management Internship program, which provides opportunities to college students interested in careers in equine management.

$10,000 from Tito's Handmade Vodka to the Secretariat Center, which works to prepare off-track Thoroughbreds for successful second careers, through its "Love, Tito's" program and in conjunction with sales of the Tito's Trifecta cocktail

$5,000 from Lexus of Lexington and Keeneland to The MAP Foundation to benefit the Woodhill Community Center.

For both meets, Keeneland and Country Boy Brewing of Lexington again teamed to produce Keeneland Lager. Country Boy Brewing and Kentucky Eagle donated $1 per case to support Blue Grass Farms Charities.

Keeneland and Stable Recovery Launch Partnership

Keeneland and Stable Recovery, a groundbreaking peer-driven program that offers recovering addicts the opportunity to learn the skills needed to find meaningful employment in the Thoroughbred industry, have teamed to launch a dedicated Maintenance Cohort at the track.

Begun in August 2025, the Maintenance Cohort is a specialized extension of the existing 90-day Taylor Made School of Horsemanship focusing on practical skills, job readiness and character development through hard work and accountability. Keeneland is the first race track nationally to provide on-site housing and full-time employment for the eight men participating in the new initiative who work with Keeneland's maintenance team to gain the hands-on experience necessary to contribute to the track's operation.

"Keeneland is excited to support the life-changing work being done by Stable Recovery," Keeneland President and CEO Shannon Arvin said. "Stable Recovery and Keeneland share a commitment to social responsibility and to bettering the quality of life in our community. Together, we can create a legacy that transforms lives and strengthens our equine industry."

Stable Recovery partners with the Taylor Made School of Horsemanship to provide an environment where men live, work and recover together, attending 12-step meetings, additional support groups and horsemanship skill groups led by top professionals in the industry. Life skills such as accountability, structure, discipline and responsibility are taught as are employable skills aimed at providing these men with the opportunities for a second chance.

In addition to trade skills, the Maintenance Cohort curriculum includes hands-on horsemanship and stable management training; track maintenance and safety procedures; equine care and veterinary basics; and professional development focused on the unique demands of Keeneland.

"This collaboration is a powerful statement about the value of redemption, the healing bond between horses and humans and the shared belief that everyone deserves a second chance," Stable Recovery CEO Christian Countzler said. "Keeneland's support gives our men not only purpose and employment, but dignity and hope. We couldn't ask for a better partner in this mission."

More than 100 individuals have graduated from the Stable Recovery program, the brainchild of Taylor Made Farm's Frank Taylor.

Important Outreach

Visit Keeneland.com for more information about these programs:

Keeneland Giving: Kentucky-based 501(c)(3) organizations may apply for gifts, services or sponsorships for their fundraising events.

Keeneland Foundation: Provides annual grants to Kentucky-based 501(c)(3) organizations with priority being groups in Central Kentucky. Funding directly connected to proceeds from the Keeneland/Cross Gate Gallery Sporting Art Auction (see page 30) and historically targets capital expansion and equipment purchases.

Keeneland Library Foundation: This 501(c)(3) non-profit supports unique Library projects that preserve and share the Thoroughbred industry's past and present with an eye to the future. Mission is to broaden Keeneland Library's access and outreach initiatives through educational programs for youth and adults, exhibits and targeted digitization and preservation projects of its unique collections.

Through the Years

Keeneland's charitable outreach has been at the forefront of historic civic and horse industry initiatives in Central Kentucky for more than 80 years:

- In 1954, Keeneland gave $200,000 to the University of Kentucky to construct a dormitory.
- In 1959, Keeneland closed for two days as its employees, using Keeneland equipment, moved St. Joseph Hospital (then known as the City's Hospital) from downtown Lexington to its current location.
- At the height of the polio epidemic, Keeneland paid $10,000 for the Salk vaccine to assist in inoculating Fayette County children who otherwise might not have been vaccinated.
- In the mid-1980s, Keeneland gave $1 million over several years to establish the University of Kentucky's Maxwell A. Gluck Equine Research Center.

Major funding gifts from Keeneland have positively impacted numerous Central Kentucky institutions and organizations:

- Kentucky Educational Television (KET): $250,000 to help establish an endowment to develop original Kentucky programming.
- Kentucky Historical Society: $250,000 to build the Keeneland Changing Exhibits Gallery, a temporary collections space.
- Midway College: $150,000 to expand its equine studies program.
- Fayette Education Foundation: $60,000 to reward and recognize Fayette County schools that successfully raise the education standards for all students.
- Lexington's Living Arts & Science Center: $25,000 for a new classroom.
- Kentucky Blood Center: $60,000 to help build a new facility.
- University of Kentucky's W.T. Young Library: $50,000 to transform the Keeneland Room into an active meeting space.

A Culture of Safety

Keeneland's Equine Safety team reviews a full picture of horses competing on our grounds through the following:

EVALUATE
Expert visual & hands-on evaluation of the horse's physical condition

ANALYZE
Review of data, records & history of the racehorse including race performance

ASSESS
Identify need for diagnostics, review findings & make recommendations for the horse's care

Advancing with Tech

Keeneland leverages the best veterinary care in the world while exploring new advancements in technology to keep our equine athletes safe:

VET CAM
Keeneland's state-of-the-art VetCam video and 24/7 barn surveillance system provide consistent monitoring of our equine athletes throughout our grounds

DATA-DRIVEN TECH INITIATIVES
Keeneland contributes data to these initiatives to analyze equine injuries & prevent them from occurring

WEARABLE TECHNOLOGY
Horses at Keeneland wear StrideSAFE Sensors during racing that analyze a horse's stride, detect abnormalities & signal the need for diagnostics

PET SCAN & MRI TECHNOLOGY
Available from nearby world-renowned veterinary providers Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital and Hagyard Equine Medical Institute

DID YOU KNOW?

Keeneland's
7 DAY ENTRY REQUIREMENT
allows our Equine Safety team to assess potential risk factors, perform examinations and consult with attending veterinarians on every racehorse.

Each competing racehorse receives a minimum of 10 UNIQUE INTERACTIONS with Keeneland, private and regulatory veterinarians prior to race

Each race day, Keeneland takes
93 MOISTURE READINGS
on our dirt and turf tracks to ensure consistency of the surface

Keeneland & the University of Kentucky Sports Medicine Institute collaborate on JOCKEY SAFETY
initiatives, including wellness & concussion studies, equipment improvements & more

Keeneland Library

A world-renowned public research institution, Keeneland Library began in 1939 when Keeneland Trustee and Director William Arnold Hanger acquired the 2,300-volume Turf collection of Robert James Turnbull and donated the material to Keeneland.

That donation was the nucleus for the collection at the Library, which today is the world's largest repository of information related to the Thoroughbred open to the public with more than 40,000 books, five million photographic negatives and prints, and millions of newspaper and magazine articles about all aspects of the equine industry. The Library is located in a 10,000-square-foot building that opened in July 2002.

Thousands of journalists, writers, historians, industry stakeholders, academics and racing fans of all ages perform research at the Library or request information from its staff each year. The Library hosts a lecture series, maintains physical and virtual exhibits, engages in outreach and education initiatives and provides research and licensing services to community, state and national organizations.

Visitors can engage freely with the Library's exhibits or trace Keeneland's history by examining the Library's scrapbooks, which contain photographs from the track's inception and depict many milestones, including major construction projects; visits by royalty, celebrities and former U.S. Presidents; and beautiful panoramas of Keeneland's grounds. A display area near the Library entrance exhibits racing artifacts and various collectibles on a rotating basis. In addition, a portion of the Library's equine art collection is on display year-round.

Today, some of the most indispensable resources in the Library include:

- More than 15 million pages of Daily Racing Form dating back to 1896. In 2000, the Form donated the priceless archive, which includes a large run of The Morning Telegraph, the predecessor of the Eastern edition of the Form. The Morning Telegraph touted itself as "America's Oldest Authority on Motion Pictures, Theatre and Turf" and featured headlines from the track juxtaposed with photos of Hollywood and Broadway celebrities.
- Complete runs of The Blood-Horse, Livestock Record, Thoroughbred Record, Thoroughbred Times and more than 20 additional industry serials dating from the late 1800s to the present.
- Approximately 3,500 pieces of humorous caricatures and equine cartoons by Pierre Bellocq, the internationally celebrated artist known as "Peb." He donated the material, representing nearly a half-century of work, in 2009. A curated online exhibit, The Artistry of Peb, is on the Library's website.
- More than 18,000 glass plate negatives of Charles Christian Cook, one of the first photographers in the U.S. to specialize in race track scenes from the early 1900s through the 1930s.
- More than a quarter-million film negatives of racing, finish line and winner's circles shots of the 1930s-1960s from photographer Bert Morgan.
- Some 12,000 slides along with print photographs and track programs of prominent Southern California photographer Katey Barrett. Acquired in December 2014, the material represents the Library's first collection of color slides and the first to document racing in California from the 1970s to the present.
- A nearly complete run of The Spirit of the Times, which provides a weekly discussion about horse racing and breeding in America during the 19th century.
- Approximately 6,500 photographic prints by John Hemment dating from 1890s through 1910 documenting now-defunct tracks such as Morris Park and Sheepshead Bay. Virtual exhibits entitled A Day in the Life and Historic Tracks, featuring selected images from the Hemment Collection, can be found on the Library's website.
- North American racing charts dating from the early 19th century to the present.
- Roughly 2 million film negatives from photographer Jim Raftery that comprise the country's largest 20th century Turf photograph collection.

Current exhibit celebrates Latinos in racing

Keeneland Library is now presenting Raíces: The Making of Latino Legacies in Racing, a landmark showcase and education initiative that highlights 100 trailblazing Latino men and women whose contributions have shaped Thoroughbred racing and breeding from the late 1800s to today.

Raíces shines a light on Latino industry professionals from across the Americas through biographical vignettes, rare images and never-before-displayed artifacts. The free exhibit is presented in English with an accompanying Spanish audio guide, marking the Library's first fully bilingual interpretive experience.

Developed in collaboration with writers, historians and photographers from six countries, the exhibit underscores the depth, breadth and enduring impact of Latino heritage within the sport.

Outreach and Community Engagement

In 2025, Keeneland Library:

- Worked with 8,646 reference and research patrons from every state and 26 countries.
- Completed 2,276 research projects and licensed 3,735 photographs for 20 industry publications and media outlets; 31 mainstream media outlets; 62 international industry organizations; and 70 community organizations across the country.
- Freely reached more than 185,000 youth and adults from every state and 36 countries through its education and outreach services.
- Hosted 143 free educational programs for 10,931 community and industry stakeholders.
- Curated traveling exhibits in seven states, while launching two new exhibitions, including the Library's first bilingual exhibit.
- Published three books, including a joint publication of the seminal The Racetracks of America compendium released in partnership with the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame.
- Added 1,146 equine industry books, 38,000 historic industry photographs and 4,127 current industry news articles to the collections for future researchers.
- Completed the Hemment Collection preservation project to index and digitize the country's oldest collection of Turf photography.
- Launched a searchable digital repository showcasing the invaluable Peb Collection.
- Finished a two-year preservation project to increase the lifespan of the Library's rarest books.

Keeneland Hosts Fourth Breeders' Cup in 2026

With picturesque surroundings that make a thrilling backdrop to Thoroughbred racing, Keeneland is preparing to host the 14-race Breeders' Cup World Championships for the fourth time on Oct. 30-31.

Here is a recap of Keeneland's first three runnings, which featured outstanding racing and posted impressive business figures. (Results of Breeders' Cup races at Keeneland begin on page 155.)

Homecoming in 2015

Keeneland's first Breeders' Cup delivered a memorable homecoming to Central Kentucky, the heart of the Thoroughbred industry. Topping the event was the performance by Triple Crown winner American Pharoah, who won the $5 million Classic by 6½ lengths in track-record time in the final race of his career. American Pharoah was named Horse of the Year and champion 3-year-old male.

Other Breeders' Cup winners were Catch a Glimpse (Juvenile Fillies Turf), Found (IRE) (Turf), Hit It a Bomb (Juvenile Turf), Liam's Map (Dirt Mile), Mongolian Saturday (Turf Sprint), Nyquist (Juvenile), Runhappy (Sprint), Songbird (Juvenile Fillies), Stephanie's Kitten (Filly and Mare Turf), Stopchargingmaria (Distaff), Tepin (Mile) and Wavell Avenue (Filly and Mare Sprint).

The track accommodated guests from around the world with 44,947 fans on Friday, a track record that stood for one day and a record attendance for a Breeders' Cup Friday. Saturday's attendance was 50,155.

"This was a day that people will look back on and tell people they were here and it's exactly why the Breeders' Cup was created: to showcase the very best of our sport," said Craig Fravel, who at the time was Breeders' Cup President and CEO. "We're thrilled with the crowd over both days, the strong business levels and our gracious hosts here at Keeneland and the greater Lexington area."

Highlights of 2020

In September 2020, Breeders' Cup announced that Keeneland would host the 2022 World Championships while stating the 2020 event would be held with only essential personnel and participants – no on-site fans – because of the COVID-19 pandemic. The same limitations were in place for Keeneland's Fall Meet that preceded the Breeders' Cup.

Despite the challenges of conducting an event during the pandemic, the 2020 Breeders' Cup produced two days of racing that were as spectacular as always.

In the $6 million Classic, Kentucky Derby (G1) Presented by Woodford Reserve winner Authentic scored a decisive front-running victory in the final race of his career. Authentic lowered the 1¼-mile track record set by American Pharoah when he won in 1:59.60.

Authentic, who sold for $350,000 at Keeneland's 2018 September Yearling Sale, was named the year's Horse of the Year and champion 3-year-old male.

Other highlights of the 2020 Breeders' Cup included four Breeders' Cup winners for trainer Brad Cox: Aunt Pearl (IRE) (Juvenile Fillies Turf), Essential Quality (Juvenile), Knicks Go (Dirt Mile in track-record time) and Monomoy Girl (Distaff). Knicks Go, Aunt Pearl and Essential Quality were coming off wins during Keeneland's Fall Meet.

The 2020 Breeders' Cup also featured a strong European showing. Trainer Aidan O'Brien sent out the first three finishers in the Mile, winning the race with 73-1 longshot Order of Australia (IRE); French Group 1 winner Audarya (FR) lowered the course record in the Filly and Mare Turf; multiple Group 1-winning filly Tarnawa (IRE) defeated males in the Turf with multiple Group 1-winning filly Magical (IRE) running second; and Glass Slippers (GB), another multiple Group 1-winning filly, also prevailed against males when she captured the Turf Sprint.

Other Breeders' Cup winners were Fire At Will (Juvenile Turf), Gamine (Filly and Mare Sprint), Golden Pal (Juvenile Turf Sprint), Vequist (Juvenile Fillies) and Whitmore (Sprint).

Flightline dominates in 2022

West Coast-based Flightline capped an undefeated career when he won the $6 million Classic by 8¼ lengths (a record for the race). The performance came in the final race for Flightline, who later was named the 2022 Horse of the Year. (Two days after the Classic, a 2.5% ownership

2022 Breeders' Cup Has $82 Million Economic Impact

The 2022 Breeders' Cup World Championships at Keeneland generated a total estimated economic impact of $81,846,897 in Lexington and surrounding areas. Results of the study led by University of Louisville Economics Professor Thomas E. Lambert, Ph.D., represent the second-highest economic impact in Breeders' Cup history, following the record set in 2017 at Del Mar.

Economic benefits of the 2022 Breeders' Cup include:

- $30.5 million in on-track spending, including wagering, concessions, parking, merchandise and more.
- $33.6 million in spending on hotels, retailers, food and drink, transportation and off-track entertainment.
- $10 million in track improvement investments for Keeneland with $7.5 million in labor and material costs generated by the projects boosting the Lexington economy by an estimated $17.5 million overall.
- $900,000 secured in state and local tax revenues and $5.3 million secured in federal tax revenues.

Flightline capped his undefeated career when he dominated the 2022 Breeders' Cup Classic en route to being named Horse of the Year and champion older dirt male.

Sheikh Mohammed Bin Rashid Al Maktoum's Godolphin set a Breeders' Cup record with four victories, thanks to three European-based winners trained by Charlie Appleby and one from the U.S. conditioned by Bill Mott. Appleby won the Juvenile Turf Sprint with Mischief Magic (IRE), the Mile with Modern Games (IRE) and the Turf with Rebel's Romance (IRE). Mott sent out Cody's Wish to take the Dirt Mile.

Also scoring three Breeders' Cup races was trainer Aidan O'Brien, who won with horses owned by Coolmore partners: Juvenile Fillies Turf with Mediate (IRE), Juvenile Turf with Victoria Road (IRE) and Filly and Mare Turf with Tuesday (IRE). Two of those horses set course records: Rebels Romance (1½ miles) and Tuesday (1 3/16 miles).

Keeneland's Fall Meet yielded four Breeders' Cup winners: Franklin (now Grade 2) winner Caravel won the Turf Sprint; Claiborne Breeders' Futurity (G1) winner Forte took the Juvenile; Juddmonte Spinster (G1) winner Malathaat won the Distaff; and Darley Alcibiades (G1) winner Wonder Wheel captured the Juvenile Fillies.

Todd Pletcher trains Forte and Malathaat. Mott also won the Sprint with Elite Power. The other Breeders' Cup winner was Goodnight Olive (Filly and Mare Sprint), trained by Chad Brown.

The business side of the Breeders' Cup was just as outstanding as the racing The event generated a record global wagering pool of $189 million, highest in Breeders' Cup history and 3.4% higher than the prior record of $182.9 million set in 2021. Records also were set for individual-day handle totals with wagering on Future Stars Friday reaching $66.1 million and on Championship Saturday amassing $122.9 million.

Horses competing in the Breeders' Cup at Keeneland are stabled in the nine barns on Rice Road formally called the Keeneland Training Center.

In 2015, Keeneland fans caught a glimpse of Triple Crown winner American Pharoah, shown entering the tunnel on his way from the Paddock to the race track before the Breeders' Cup Classic.

Biographies

Officers

Shannon Bishop Arvin | President and CEO

Shannon Bishop Arvin has been Keeneland's eighth President and CEO since 2021. She began practicing law in 2002 at the Lexington firm Stoll Keenon Ogden (SKO), where she represented Thoroughbred owners and industry organizations in Kentucky and around the world. As an SKO member, in 2008 she began serving as corporate counsel to Keeneland, and she has been corporate secretary and advisory member of Keeneland's Board of Directors since 2015.

Arvin is Chair of the National Thoroughbred Racing Association and is on the Board of Directors of Stock Yards Bancorp and the National Museum of Racing and Hall of Fame. She is a Trustee of the Thoroughbred Owners and Breeders Association and is President of the Board of The Lexington School. She became a member of The Jockey Club in 2019 and a Trustee of The Jockey Club Safety Net Foundation in 2021.

She has several notable links to Keeneland. Her grandfather W.T. "Bish" Bishop began working at Keeneland before the track opened in 1936 and served as General Manager until 1971. Her father, the late William T. "Buddy" Bishop III, grew up at Keeneland, living in an apartment next to the Clubhouse. Buddy Bishop's lifelong service to Keeneland included positions as Director, Secretary, Trustee and Counsel. He was also a partner at SKO, where he and Shannon worked together at the firm until Buddy's passing in 2008.

Arvin has a B.A. in Political Science, International Studies, with High Honors from the University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill. She graduated from the University of Kentucky College of Law in 2002.

Shannon and her husband, Will, have two daughters, Bishop and McCutchen.

Gatewood Bell | Vice President of Racing

Prominent Central Kentucky horseman and noted bloodstock adviser Gatewood Bell became Keeneland's Vice President of Racing in February 2021.

Raised on his family's Jonabell Farm in Lexington, Bell received a finance degree with honors from the University of Kentucky in 2004. After graduation, he worked for trainer Kiaran McLaughlin for three seasons in Florida, Kentucky and New York. He also represented jockey Fernando Jara as an agent on the East Coast.

In 2011, Bell founded Cromwell Bloodstock, a full-service bloodstock agency and consulting firm named after a company owned by his grandfather, John A. Bell, and has been its president for the past decade. He is also a member of The Jockey Club, Breeders' Cup Ltd., the American Graded Stakes Committee and the Equibase Management Committee. Bell previously was on the Kentucky Horse Racing Commission and was the U.S. representative for Goffs Sales of Ireland.

Gatewood and his wife, Lauren, have three children: Eloise, Daisy and Gus.

Dr. Stuart E. Brown II | Vice President of Equine Safety

Internationally respected equine veterinarian Dr. Stuart E. Brown II, who joined Keeneland in June 2020, is Vice President of Equine Safety.

Dr. Brown leads Keeneland's effort to develop, communicate and enforce safety and integrity policies for both racing and sales operations; reviews all racing-related accidents with the goal of prevention; assesses relevant equine health and safety research; and proactively communicates best practices to the racing community and public. His duties encompass Keeneland and The Thoroughbred Center, the training center in Lexington that Keeneland owns.

Dr. Brown completed his undergraduate work at Transylvania University and earned his Doctor of Veterinary Medicine from Tuskegee University. He spent nearly 30 years with Lexington's Hagyard Equine Medical Institute, specializing in equine reproduction and ambulatory medicine.

A member of The Jockey Club, he has served many equine and veterinary industry organizations in leadership roles, including the American Association of Equine Practitioners (AAEP), American Veterinary Medical Association (AVMA), Grayson-Jockey Club Research Foundation, Kentucky Thoroughbred Association (KTA), Kentucky Veterinary Medical Association (KVMA), Organization of Racing Investigators (ORI), Racing Medication and Testing Consortium (RMTC) and University of Kentucky Equine Science.

He currently is Chairman of both the AAEP Caribbean Racehorse Welfare Working Group and the AVMA Insurance Trust.

Dr. Brown received the 2022 KVMA Distinguished Service Award; the 2021 AVMA Meritorious Service Award; and the 2017 AAEP President's Award.

He is married to Jen Roytz and lives in Versailles, Kentucky.

Jeremy Kolonay | Chief Information Officer

In January 2026, Keeneland named Jeremy Kolonay its new Chief Information Officer. He is responsible for Keeneland's digital strategy, working across all departments to align digital and technology efforts to achieve the organization's most important outcomes.

Kolonay formerly was Vice President, Digital at Next Logical Decision (NLD), a Kentucky-based digital and technology consulting firm that worked with Keeneland. He also has served as a transformative executive coach and technology leader in national industries such as retail/digital commerce, digital marketing and federal consulting for civilian, defense and intelligence agencies.

Born in Detroit, Kolonay grew up outside Ashland, Kentucky and graduated from the University of Kentucky with a B.A. in economics.

Jeremy has two children, Katherine and Henry.

Tony Lacy | Vice President of Sales

Tony Lacy brought a depth of international racing and sales experience to Keeneland when he was named Vice President of Sales in April 2021.

A fourth-generation horseman from Ireland, Lacy began his career as an assistant trainer to his father, T. F. "Tom" Lacy, a steeplechase jockey who came within a length of defeating the legendary Arkle in the 1964 Irish Grand National. The younger Lacy was a successful amateur jockey in Ireland for 11 years.

After working for trainers in France and Dubai, Lacy gained experience in U.S. sales and breeding with Wintergreen Farm in Kentucky and 2-year-old consignor Jerry Bailey in Florida. In 2001, he helped establish Four Star Sales, eventually becoming a partner and developing the company into a leading North American consignor with a diverse client portfolio.

From 2008-2021, Lacy served as the North American representative for the French Thoroughbred sales company Arqana. He also has counseled and represented various international breeding and racing organizations.

Lacy is President of the Board of Directors of New Vocations Racehorse Adoption Program. He is a Past President of the Thoroughbred Club of America.

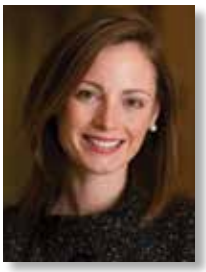
Tony and his wife, Kathy, reside in Lexington.

Christa Marrillia | Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer

Vice President and Chief Marketing Officer Christa Marrillia began her career at Keeneland in 2003 after she served as an intern in the Marketing department while pursuing a marketing degree at the University of Kentucky. She oversees the Broadcasting, Communications, Marketing, Office Services and Retail teams.

A native of Midway, Kentucky, Marrillia is a graduate of the University of Kentucky. She is actively engaged in the community as a member of the VisitLEX Tourism Commission and as a Trustee of Midway University. Lexington Mayor Linda Gorton appointed Marrillia to serve on the city's 250 Lex Planning Commission, which planned a yearlong celebration of Lexington's 250th anniversary in 2025. She also is a member and past president of the Bluegrass Hospitality Association and formerly served on the boards of LexArts and the Downtown Lexington Partnership.

Christa and her husband, Josh, have two sons, Lincoln and Winston.



Sarah Sloan Reeves | Chief Legal Officer

In February 2026, Sarah Sloan Reeves became Keeneland's Chief Legal Officer after more than 15 years advising the organization at Stoll Keenon Ogden (SKO), the only outside legal counsel Keeneland has engaged.

During her time at SKO, Reeves served as Keeneland's Corporate Secretary and General Counsel since 2020 and supported the organization's legal needs since joining the firm in 2009. She has acted as counsel to and Corporate Secretary of the Breeders' Cup and the National Thoroughbred Racing Association while advising many of Keeneland's horse farm partners around the world and maintaining an active estate planning practice.

Reeves has been recognized by Best Lawyers in America® for her work in equine and commercial law and was previously named a "Rising Star" by Kentucky Super Lawyers®. She has also received "Lawyer of the Year" honors in her practice area, distinctions based on peer recognition.

Reeves taught middle- and high-school English before earning her degree from the University of Kentucky College of Law. Before joining SKO, she clerked for the Honorable Eugene E. Siler Jr. of the U.S. Court of Appeals for the Sixth Circuit. Reeves is a member of Christ Church Cathedral in Lexington, serving on the Vestry and as Senior Warden.

Sarah lives in Lexington with her husband, Adam, and their two children, Sloan and Jack.

Hunter Stout, CPA | Chief Financial Officer

In July 2023, Hunter Stout was named Keeneland's Chief Financial Officer after having served as Senior Director of Finance.

Stout, who is from Louisville, has an MBA and a Bachelor of Science in accounting from the University of Kentucky. He spent 13 years at Dean Dorton Allen Ford prior to joining Keeneland in July 2019.

Stout is a member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the Kentucky Society of Certified Public Accountants. He currently serves on the board of directors for Commerce Lexington, YMCA of Central Kentucky and Big Brothers Big Sisters of the Bluegrass. He previously was a member of the board of the Lexington Public Library.

Hunter and his wife, Amy, have two children, Chloe and Jack.

Marc Therrien | Managing Director of Keeneland Hospitality

Chef Marc Therrien has more than 30 years of culinary and hospitality experience from coast to coast, spending most of his career in hotels and resorts. He became Keeneland's Managing Director of Keeneland Hospitality in May 2019.

Prior to joining Keeneland Hospitality in 2016, Chef Marc spent eight years as executive chef at La Costa Resort & Spa in Carlsbad, California, known for its award-winning spa program. He also helped build the Ayurvedic culinary program at the legendary resort's Chopra Center. During his tenure, the resort received its first Silver Certificate for Green Seal, a sustainability certification for hotels and restaurants.

Chef Marc has helped develop Keeneland's hospitality programs from culinary to beverage and concessions. He enjoys working with the community and developing young talent to be good leaders and better serve the industry of the future.

He is married to Tera Gehrig and has a daughter, Ariel Therrien.

Kari West | Chief of Staff

Chief of Staff Kari West, who joined Keeneland in 2012, works alongside all Keeneland departments and manages numerous projects. She oversees Facilities, Operations, Chaplaincy and Human Resources, and she works closely with Keeneland's Board of Directors.

Raised in Nicholasville, Kentucky, West received a degree from Georgetown College and immediately after college went to work for the investment banking firm Ross, Sinclaire & Associates. She serves on the Board of Blue Grass Farms Charities.

Kari and her husband, Robb, have one daughter, Elyn.

History of Keeneland Presidents

Twelve enterprising horsemen under the leadership of Hal Price Headley formed the Keeneland Association in 1935 after Lexington's Kentucky Association race track closed after nearly 100 years of operation.

Keeneland's founders outlined their vision for a "model racetrack" to showcase "racing as it was meant to be" in a "prospectus" that eloquently detailed the development, financing and governance of the new association. Headley was installed as the first President of Keeneland.

Keeneland Race Course opened to accolades on Oct. 15, 1936. Headley remained President until 1951, when Guy Huguelet took the helm. Huguelet held that position until his death in 1955, whereupon, the Keeneland Association elected Louis Lee Haggin II as President.

At this point in Keeneland's history, a distinction was made between being President of the Keeneland Race Course and being President of the Keeneland Association, with the latter being the higher authority. Haggin had been President of the Race Course since 1940 before assuming the role as President of the Association in 1956. At 43, Haggin was the youngest person elected President.

In 1970, James E. "Ted" Bassett III became Association President after serving as Haggin's assistant for several years. Bassett oversaw rapid changes in Keeneland's sales as the 1980s economy boomed, prompting bidding wars into the millions of dollars for well-bred yearlings. Additionally, Bassett served as host to Queen Elizabeth II, who presented the trophy for the inaugural Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup in 1984.

Bassett moved on to other roles, and William C. "Bill" Greely was promoted from Vice President to President in 1986. Greely had the distinction of introducing Sunday racing in 1991 and installing a public address system and race caller, Kurt Becker, in 1997.

Greely retired in early 2000, and George "Nick" Nicholson was elected President. Nicholson shepherded Keeneland's 75th Anniversary festivities along with the filming of the movies "Seabiscuit," "Dreamer" and "Secretariat," the installation of the all-weather Polytrack surface and other capital improvements, including the construction of the new Library in 2002.

When Nicholson retired in 2012, Chief Financial Officer William "Bill" Thomason took the reins. Thomason's achievements include the installation of an innovative dirt track, oversight of two successful runnings of the Breeders' Cup World Championships, development of a superb Keeneland Hospitality and Special Events program, establishment of safety and industry integrity initiatives along with leadership during the COVID-19 pandemic.

In July 2020, Shannon Bishop Arvin, a member of Keeneland's Board of Directors and Keeneland's legal counsel, was named President-Elect. She became President and CEO on Jan. 1, 2021.

Milestones

1933-34

The Kentucky Association track – the oldest race track in North America – holds its final season of racing in the spring of 1933, leaving Lexington without a Thoroughbred race track for the first time in 107 years. Members of the Central Kentucky Thoroughbred industry and others, led by Hal Price Headley and Maj. Louie A. Beard, begin meeting in 1934 with the goal of bringing racing back to Lexington.

This is the impetus for the Keeneland Association, which is founded during the dark years of the Great Depression to "create a model race track to perpetuate and improve the sport and to provide a course that is intended to serve as a symbol of the fine traditions of Thoroughbred racing."

April 17: Articles of incorporation are filed for the Keeneland Association. … Hal Price Headley is elected President. Other officers are Jack Young, First Vice President; A.B. Gay, Second Vice President; Brownell Combs, Secretary; and W.H. Courtney, Treasurer. Headley will serve as Keeneland Association President from 1935-1951.

Aug. 31: At a press conference in the Keeneland Sales Pavilion, U.S. Senate Majority Leader Mitch McConnell of Kentucky announces plans to introduce legislation in the U.S. Senate to help set national standards to promote fairness, increase safety and help preserve Thoroughbred racing. Titled the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Act (HISA), the bill is backed by Keeneland, Churchill Downs, Breeders' Cup, The Jockey Club and other industry leaders as a solution to the challenges facing racing. The press conference also announces the launch of the Horseracing Integrity and Safety Authority, an independent, non-governmental regulatory body responsible for implementing uniform medication rules and operational standards. Congress included the Act in its FY 2021 omnibus spending bill, which it passed Dec. 21. President Trump signed the measure into law Dec. 27.

Sept. 1: Shannon Bishop Arvin begins serving as Keeneland President-Elect. She also is Interim Head of Sales.

Sept. 12: Breeders' Cup Ltd. announces Keeneland will hold the 2022 Breeders' Cup World Championships on Nov. 4-5. The announcement is made in conjunction with the decision to hold the 2020 event – also at Keeneland – without on-site fans because of the COVID-19 pandemic.

Oct. 2-24: The Fall Meet is closed to the public due to the COVID-19 pandemic; only a limited number of participants and essential personnel are permitted to attend. Wagering exceeds $148 million on the 17-day season.

Keeneland Firsts

Throughout its history, Keeneland has been the first track in Kentucky, the U.S. or North America to debut new technologies or has been an early adopter of advances in Thoroughbred racing. They include:

1936 Fall Meet: During its inaugural season, Keeneland introduces the totalisator wagering system – the first in Kentucky.

1940 Spring Meet: Keeneland debuts the enclosed electric starting gate.

1949 Spring Meet: Keeneland has a new aluminum inside rail, which replaces the conventional wooden rail.

1961 Fall Meet: Keeneland is the first American track to use the Visumatic Timer, which posts fractional and final times on the tote board.

1979 Spring Meet: Keeneland becomes the first Kentucky track and the fourth track in the U.S. to use the AmTote 300 Series Totalisator System, known as ABC (All Betting and Cashing) Mutuels. The system allows bettors to buy and cash tickets in any amount and type at any window.

1983 Fall Meet: Keeneland debuts the Fontana Safety Rail, which replaces the aluminum inside rail.

1985 Fall Meet: Keeneland debuts the first turf course in Kentucky. On opening day, Ogama Bay wins the first race on the new surface.

1996: Keeneland opens an on-site Repository of X-rays for horses in the July Yearling Sale.

2006 Fall Meet: Keeneland becomes the first track in the U.S. to offer Trakus video race technology. Trakus provides the ability – via sensor chips in saddle cloths and antennas positioned around the track – to track each horse in a race electronically and digitally in real time. Information on individual horses is collected and displayed in various viewer-friendly animated forms.

2008 Fall Meet: Keeneland becomes the first track in North America to provide live race coverage and limited simulcasts in high definition.

2021: In a first at a U.S. track, Keeneland begins using a network of video cameras on both the main track and training track to capture live footage of horses during morning training. Vice President of Equine Safety Dr. Stuart Brown and Racing Safety Officer Dr. George Mundy monitor videos to evaluate horses for safety purposes.

2021 Fall Meet: Keeneland introduces a new wager, the Keeneland Turf Pick 3, with a $3 minimum and 15 percent takeout, tying together the final three turf races of each day. The wager was well received by the public, netting a total handle of $1,683,502, or an average of $112,233 per day. The average payout was over $1,300 for a $3 wager.

Milestones

Nov. 6-7: Keeneland hosts the 37th Breeders' Cup World Championships, which is limited to essential personnel and participants. Total all-sources handle is $160,472,894, the sixth-highest total since the Breeders' Cup expanded to a two-day event in 2007. The two-day total handle represents a 7% increase from the 2015 Breeders' Cup at Keeneland.

Dec. 17: Keeneland Association names Rubicon its exclusive sustainability partner. The five-year agreement incorporates Rubicon's smart waste, recycling solutions, data analytics and sustainability planning to support Keeneland's efforts to reach zero waste.

Jan. 1: Shannon Bishop Arvin becomes Keeneland's eighth President. She is the first woman to serve in the position.

Feb. 1: G.D. Hieronymus, Keeneland's Eclipse Award-winning Director of Broadcast Services since 2000, retires. Hieronymus will continue to work during the race meets and on special projects for Keeneland and its industry and philanthropic partners.

Feb. 11: Prominent Central Kentucky horseman and bloodstock adviser Gatewood Bell is named Keeneland's Vice President of Racing.

March 17: Lane's End Farm's William "Bill" Farish, who serves on the boards of numerous Thoroughbred industry and Central Kentucky organizations, is appointed a Keeneland Trustee. Farish succeeds Claiborne Farm co-owner Seth Hancock, who retires after serving as a Trustee since 2015.

April 2: Julien Leparoux rides Gear Jockey to win the fifth race on opening day of the Spring Meet to record his 500th career win at Keeneland.

April 2-23: Total all-sources wagering for the 15-day Spring Meet is a season record $164,680,229. In accordance with COVID-19 restrictions, only a limited number of fans are permitted to attend the races. Attendance totals 96,243, for an average daily crowd of 6,416.

April 7: Alice Headley Chandler, who helped shape Keeneland's success, dies at 95. Chandler, whose father, Hal Price Headley, was Keeneland's first President, bred 1968 Epsom Derby winner Sir Ivor, sold by Mill Ridge at the 1966 Keeneland July Selected Yearling Sale for $42,000 to Raymond Guest. The colt's achievements boosted Keeneland's reputation as an international auction house. Chandler held numerous industry leadership positions and continued her father's service to Keeneland. She was a member of the track's Board of Directors for 23 years.

Alice Chandler with her father, Hal Price Headley

April 26: Internationally respected bloodstock adviser and consignor Tony Lacy is named Keeneland's Vice President of Sales. Director of Sales Operations Geoffrey Russell will retire from his full-time position after 25 years with Keeneland but remain in a consulting role through 2021.

June 10: Prominent bloodstock consultant Cormac Breathnach, Ph.D., is named Keeneland's new Director of Sales Operations.

Oct. 8-30: The Fall Meet, which marks Keeneland's 85th anniversary, generates track record all-sources wagering total ($181,009,626) for the season. On Fall Stars Saturday on opening weekend, single-day all-sources wagering ($20,926,640) and Pick 5 wagering ($1,255,080) set records.

Oct. 26: Keeneland Trustee Emeritus James E. "Ted" Bassett III turns 100.

Jan. 7: Because of a winter storm and hazardous travel conditions, Keeneland announces it will shift operations related to the January Horses of All Ages Sale one day and move the start of the four-day auction to Jan. 11.

Jan. 11: On opening day of the January Sale, Bill Layni pays $130,000 for a no-guarantee season to Gun Runner, the leading first-crop sire of 2021, which is auctioned to raise funds for relief efforts for people affected by recent catastrophic tornadoes in Western Kentucky. Three Chimneys Farm, which stands Gun Runner, and co-owner Ron Winchell donate the season.

Jan. 18: Keeneland Mercantile and Keeneland magazine announce the first Masters of Craft Awards to recognize products of artisans and businesses that are made in the U.S. The winner, announced May 10, was "The 42 Twin" Tree Swing produced by Southern Pine Swing Company of Jacksonville, Florida.

March 2: Lifelong horseman and former trainer William "Buff" Bradley is named to the new position of Keeneland's Associate of Sales Development. Bradley, who began his role Feb. 28, will concentrate on sales of breeding stock and horses of racing age.

April 8-29: The 15-day Spring Meet offers 19 stakes worth a record $7.7 million. The schedule features increased purses for all stakes and significant changes to the season's two historic classic preps: The purse of the Toyota Blue Grass (G1) on the first Saturday of the meet is restored to $1 million, and the Central Bank Ashland (G1) moves to opening day and is worth a record $600,000. (The Toyota Blue Grass returns to a Grade 1 event beginning in 2022.)

April 16: Rich Strike works 4 furlongs in :48 at Keeneland and next will win the Kentucky Derby (G1) Presented by Woodford Reserve at odds of 80-1.

September 12-24: Keeneland sets a record for gross sales at a single auction when the grand total of the 12-session September Yearling Sale reaches $418 million.

October: Keeneland plants six cherry trees – three on either side of the infield tote board – in honor of Queen Elizabeth II, who died Sept. 9. A lifelong horsewoman and successful Thoroughbred breeder and owner, The Queen visited Keeneland during the 1984 Fall Meet for the inaugural running of the Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup.

Oct. 7-29: The Fall Meet has a season record all-sources handle of $208.9 million, which is boosted by record purses of $8.95 million.

Milestones

Nov. 4-5: Keeneland hosts the Breeders' Cup World Championships for the third time (see page 10). All-sources, global common-pool handle is a record $189 million. Friday attendance is 39,851, and Saturday attendance is 45,973.

November: Keeneland announces the purchase of 200-acre Manchester Farm on its northern boundary. With rolling hills and an iconic barn with distinctive blue-and-white cupolas, Manchester appears in countless photographs and is one of the most recognizable farms in Kentucky.

Nov. 7: A half-hour prior to the start of the November Breeding Stock Sale, spectators packed the Keeneland Sales Pavilion for the offering of a 2.5 percent ownership interest in Flightline, who two days earlier won the $6 million Breeders' Cup Classic (G1) at Keeneland. Brookdale Farm's Freddy Seitz, bidding on behalf of an undisclosed farm client, signs the ticket for $4.6 million.

April 7-28: All-sources wagering during the 15-day Spring Meet is a record $224 million, marking the fifth consecutive meet with record handle. Keeneland awarded a season record $8.05 million for 19 stakes, including $1.5 million from the Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund.

Because Trakus ceased operations at the end of 2022, Keeneland – like many other North American race tracks – begin using the E-GPS System from Equibase Company.

June 24: Keeneland announces the Oct. 31 retirement of Keeneland Library Director Becky Ryder, who will be succeeded by former Head Librarian Roda Ferraro.

July: Hunter Stout joins Keeneland's executive leadership team as Chief Financial Officer.

Sept. 7: Grand opening of Caesars Sportsbook at Red Mile Gaming & Racing, marking the start of sports betting in Kentucky. Sports betting in the Commonwealth became legal March 31 when Gov. Andy Beshear signed enabling legislation. Keeneland and Red Mile later entered into an agreement with Caesar's Sportsbook to offer mobile sports betting in Kentucky and to operate Central Kentucky's retail sportsbook at Red Mile. Keeneland does not have an on-site sports betting facility; players may go to Red Mile to wager in person or wager online with the Caesars Sportsbook App.

Oct. 6-28: Fall Meet offers 22 stakes worth $9.05 million – a record for a Keeneland race meet. The amount includes $1.5 million from the Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund.

Oct. 18: Keeneland announces plans for a major capital investment project highlighted by the construction of a permanent Paddock Building and a reimagined saddling experience (page 4). Plans also call for a two-story operations building to be constructed within walking distance of the race track. The new facility will enable Keeneland to consolidate core business and operations teams under one roof in an updated work environment.

January: Keeneland's Entertainment Center is reconfigured with work and meeting space to accommodate more than 60 full- and part-time employees whose offices formerly were located in the Administrative Offices, where the new Paddock Building is being constructed. Employees begin using the new space following the January Horses of All Ages Sale.

March 5: Owner-breeder Louis Lee Haggin III, known for his commitment to Keeneland and to a multitude of Central Kentucky causes, dies at age 88. Haggin was the great-grandson of legendary horseman and entrepreneur James Ben Ali Haggin and the grandson of Keeneland co-founder and first President Hal Price Headley. His father was Keeneland's third president, and his mother, Alma Headley Haggin, was instrumental in creating Keeneland's sophisticated interiors and park-like grounds. Haggin became a Keeneland Director in 1971 and was a Trustee from 1980-2015. Among his many contributions, Haggin conceived of the alley of maples that lines the drive to the Keeneland Clubhouse and the planting of forsythias that ring the race track. He also was involved in the development of the Keeneland nursery, where plants are raised and used as replacements.

April 5-26: Keeneland awards season-record $8.1 million for 19 stakes and celebrates the 100th running of the $1 million Toyota Blue Grass (G1) during its 16-day Spring Meet. Purses include $1.5 million from the Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund. Sierra Leone wins the milestone Toyota Blue Grass and next runs second by a nose in the Kentucky Derby (G1) Presented by Woodford Reserve. All-sources wagering on the Toyota Blue Grass card is a record $29,261,346. Sierra Leone will win the Breeders' Cup Classic (G1) and be named the year's champion 3-year-old male.

Sept. 9-21: The September Yearling Sale posts total sales through the ring of $411,749,500 to be the highest-grossing Thoroughbred auction in the world. The average of $150,548 is a September Sale record, while the median of $70,000 equals the record for the auction. A total of 36 yearlings sell for $1 million or more for the most since 2005. A colt by Curlin sells for $5 million – the highest price for a colt at the auction since 2006 and the highest for a horse sold at public auction during the year in North America.

Oct. 4-26: The 17-day Fall Meet posts season-record all-sources wagering of $210 million, which is boosted by record purse money of $9.85 million for 22 stakes. (The previous season record of nearly $209 million was set during the 2022 Fall Meet.) Keeneland increases the purse of the Coolmore Turf Mile (G1) to $1.25 million, making it the richest race in track history. Brad Cox wins a meet record six stakes.

Oct. 30: The inaugural Keeneland Championship Sale is held in the Paddock at Del Mar two days before the track hosts the Breeders' Cup World Championships. A stallion share in Horse of the Year and sire Flightline, whose first foals arrived earlier that year, sells for $2.5 million to Jane Lyons' Summer Wind Equine to top the sale. The event offers the opportunity to acquire high-value racehorses and breeding stock, featuring a large crowd of participants, spirited bidding and a party atmosphere.

Milestones

Jan. 23: James E. "Ted" Bassett III, who led Keeneland through historic expansion and established its position internationally as a premier race track and auction house during his 38-year tenure as President, Chairman and Trustee, dies at his home in Lexington. He was 103. Affectionately known as "Mr. B.," Mr. Bassett devoted his life to bettering the global Thoroughbred industry and his beloved Central Kentucky community, and his engaging demeanor and graciousness endeared him to everyone he met.

April 4-6: Originally scheduled opening weekend of the Spring Meet. However, severe storms and flooding rainfall in the region force track officials to reschedule two days of the start of the season. The meet begins Sunday, April 6, The Friday, April 4 races move to Monday, April 7. The Saturday, April 5 races, including the Toyota Blue Grass (G1), move to Tuesday, April 8. The Spring Meet begins with eight consecutive days of racing.

April 6-25: Keeneland awards a season record $9.4 million for 19 stakes during the Spring Meet. The purse of the Toyota Blue Grass (G1) is increased $250,000 to $1.25 million to join the Fall Meet's Coolmore Turf Mile (G1) as the richest races in track history. Contributing to the purses is $2.25 million from the Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund (KTDF). Total purses of $21 million are a season record; average daily purses of $1.3 million are a Keeneland record.

March 10: Keeneland announces that Amy Gregory, the longtime Director of Communications, is retiring effective May 30. Gregory joined Keeneland as Media Relations Manager in 2006 and was named Director of Communications in 2013.

May 8: Keeneland and Stable Recovery, a groundbreaking peer-driven program that offers recovering addicts the opportunity to learn skills needed to find meaningful employment in the Thoroughbred industry, announce they are teaming to launch a dedicated Maintenance Cohort at Keeneland (see page 7).

May 28: Keeneland is selected to host the 2026 Breeders' Cup World Championships. The 2026 running will mark the fourth time that Keeneland has held the event following 2015, 2020 and 2022.

June 28: Racing Hall of Fame trainer D. Wayne Lukas dies at his home in Louisville, Kentucky, at age 89. Lukas won a record 16 titles as Keeneland's leading trainer and once held the record for victories and stakes wins at the track. He has 296 wins and 51 stakes wins here. Other marks: four Eclipse Awards as North America's outstanding trainer; 14 years as national earnings leader; 26 individual Thoroughbred champions, including three Horses of the Year; and wins in the Kentucky Derby (four), the Preakness (seven), the Belmont (four) and the Breeders' Cup World Championships (20). Lukas purchased a number of yearlings at Keeneland who became successful racehorses while he influenced yearling auctions and dominated races from coast to coast.

D. Wayne Lukas (sunglasses) with Lexington winner Charismatic, who will next capture the Kentucky Derby.

July 24: Keeneland names Gabby Gaudet the new Director of Communications. She joins Keeneland from FanDuel TV, where she has been a lead racing analyst and reporter since 2019.

Sept. 8-20: The 12-session September Yearling Sale sold 3,078 horses for a total of $531.7 million: the highest gross ever realized at a Thoroughbred auction worldwide. The auction had $510,544,900 in through-the-ring sales plus $21,199,500 in post sales. The combined figure tops the previous record gross of $428 million from 2024.

Oct. 3-25: The 17-day Fall Meet marked the debut of centrally located saddling stalls and Saddling Paddock enhancements; new Jockeys Quarters located beneath the Paddock Building; enhanced East Entrance and East Plaza; and new Stakes Winner's Circle (formerly the Walking Ring) where stakes-winning horses and their connections gather for post-race photographs before race fans. The meet, which offered a track-record $10.85 million for 22 stakes, posted a season-record $217 million in all-sources wagering.

Oct. 25: Reigning Horse of the Year Thorpedo Anna appears in the Paddock and on track during the races so fans can celebrate the popular racehorse. Thorpedo Anna was retired following an off-the-board finish here in the Juddmonte Spinster (G1) on Oct. 5.

2026

April 3: First day of the Spring Meet and public opening of the Paddock Building.

Oct. 30-31: Keeneland will host the Breeders' Cup World Championships.

Racing

2026 Keeneland Race Dates

Spring Meet | April 3-24

Fall Meet | Oct. 2-24

Breeders' Cup World Championships | Oct. 30-31

In the early 1930s, Keeneland's founders set about to create a special race track in Central Kentucky. Their vision, as outlined in the track's original prospectus, was "to create a model race track to perpetuate and improve the sport and to provide a course that is intended to serve as a symbol of the fine traditions of Thoroughbred racing."

Since its first meet in October 1936, Keeneland has continued to strive for excellence in its racing program, which perennially ranks among the nation's best in terms of purse money, field size and quality of racing. Recent notable events include:

- Keeneland presented its first million-dollar race, the Shadwell Turf Mile (G1), on Oct. 4, 2014. The winner was Keeneland-based two-time Horse of the Year Wise Dan. In 2022, Coolmore became the new sponsor of the prestigious race, which again was worth $1 million. Keeneland increased the purse of the 2024 running to $1.25 million, making the Coolmore Turf Mile the richest race in track history.

- In 2015, the Toyota Blue Grass (G1) – Keeneland's signature race for 3-year-olds – became a million-dollar race and moved to opening Saturday of the Spring Meet. The race was worth seven figures until 2019 and was restored to the amount in 2022. Keeneland increased the purse of the 101st running in 2025 to $1.25 million to equal the Coolmore Turf Mile as the richest races in track history.

- On Oct. 30-31, 2015, Keeneland for the first time hosted the Breeders' Cup World Championships (see page 10). One goal of hosting the event was to enhance the quality of horses racing here during the Spring and Fall Meets. The success of the Breeders' Cup heightened enthusiasm for Keeneland racing as horsemen from across the nation and around the globe experienced the track's world-class facilities and lucrative racing program for the first time.

- The Breeders' Cup returned to Keeneland on Nov. 6-7, 2020, and Nov. 4-5, 2022 (see page 10) and will be held for a fourth time here on Oct. 30-31.

- In 2022, the Central Bank Ashland (G1) moved to opening day of the Spring Meet to showcase the event, the first Grade 1 race of the year for 3-year-old fillies. The purse of the 2025 running increased to a record $750,000.

Spring Excitement

"Keeneland's Spring Meet is the destination of many of Thoroughbred racing's biggest names," Keeneland Vice President of Racing Gatewood Bell said. "The racing world converges here because they know this is where the best jockeys, trainers and horses will be, and they want to compete at the highest level. We are excited to continue to grow our racing program and eager to welcome horsemen and fans from around the world for Keeneland this spring."

The Spring Meet's two classic preps, the Toyota Blue Grass and the Central Bank Ashland, both are worth 200 points to the winners on the Road to the Kentucky Derby and Road to the Kentucky Oaks, respectively. The winners of each stakes will earn 100 qualifying points to the respective classic.

Since 1936, 19 horses have used the Blue Grass as a steppingstone to victory in the Derby, most recently Unbridled (1990), Strike the Gold (1991), Sea Hero (1993), Thunder Gulch (1995) and Street Sense (2007). Sierra Leone, who won the 100th running of the race in 2024, finished second in the Derby and ended the season by capturing the Breeders' Cup Classic (G1). He received the Eclipse Award as champion 3-year-old male.

Opening day of the Spring Meet features the Central Bank Ashland, a premier race for 3-year-old fillies. Thirty-five fillies have won the Kentucky Oaks off a start in the Ashland, including Malathaat (2021), Monomoy Girl (2018), Cathryn Sophia (2016) and Lovely Maria (2015). (Malathaat and Monomoy Girl went on to earn Eclipse Awards as champion 3-year-old filly.) These classic winners join such standouts as Oaks-Ashland winners Silverbulletday, Princess Rooney, Blush With Pride, Optimistic Gal and Real Delight.

Other Grade 1 races during the Spring Meet are the Resolute Racing Madison, the Maker's Mark Mile and the Jenny Wiley. Each race is worth $650,000.

This year, Keeneland will award a Spring Meet record $9.55 million for 19 stakes to be run during 15 days of racing. Contributing to the stakes purses is a total of $2.25 million from the Kentucky Thoroughbred Development Fund (KTDF).

Fall Excellence

In October, Keeneland's signature Fall Stars Weekend is an exciting kick-off to the Fall Meet, when 11 stakes are contested opening weekend. Five of those races are Grade 1 events: the Darley Alcibiades, the Coolmore Turf Mile, the Claiborne Breeders' Futurity, the First Lady and the Juddmonte Spinster.

The season's sixth Grade 1 stakes is the Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup Presented by Dixiana, an internationally renowned invitational for 3-year-old fillies at 1 1/8 miles on the turf.

Fans will see many Breeders' Cup-bound stars prep at Keeneland as a prelude to the World Championships. Eight Breeders' Cup Challenge stakes are run Fall Stars Weekend: the Darley Alcibiades (Challenge race for the Juvenile Fillies-G1), the Stoll Keenon Ogden Phoenix-G2 (Sprint-G1) and the Jessamine (G2) Presented by Keeneland Sales (Juvenile Fillies Turf-G1) on Friday; the Coolmore Turf Mile (Mile-G1), the Claiborne Breeders' Futurity (Juvenile-G1) and the Thoroughbred Club of America (Filly and Mare Sprint-G1) on Saturday; and the Juddmonte Spinster (Distaff-G1) and the Castle & Key Bourbon-G2 (Juvenile Turf-G1) on Sunday.

At the 2025 Fall Meet, purses for 22 stakes were a track record $10.85 million, and all-sources handle reached a season record $217 million.

Meanwhile, Keeneland fans saw two eventual Breeders' Cup winners: Ted Noffey, who won the Claiborne Breeders' Futurity and next captured the Juvenile to earn the Eclipse Award as champion 2-year-old male; and Distaff winner Scylla, who was third in the Juddmonte Spinster.

With their success, the winners of 67 Breeders' Cup races have made their final starts before the World Championships during Keeneland's Fall Meet (see page 294).

Historic Vision

That Keeneland is such a special place is no accident. Grand thinking by Jack Keene, coupled with the shared aspirations of a group of prominent horsemen – most notably Hal Price Headley and Maj. Louie Beard – led to Keeneland's creation.

With the demise of the Kentucky Association track near downtown Lexington in 1933, these and other horsemen faced a dilemma: For the first time in more than 100 years the city was without a race track. Concerned citizens began meeting in 1934 after determining it wasn't feasible to reopen the shuttered track. From among 20 locations, they selected Jack Keene's property, primarily because Keene was willing to part with the property for much less than its fair market value. Plus, the site included a mile-and-a-furlong private track, combination stone castle and barn, a 100,000-gallon water tank, a roadway and land for future stables and parking.

The facility, while a good start, still required much work. Headley, Beard and others worked feverishly around the clock, and a mere 15 months later, Keeneland opened its gates. It was managed by the Keeneland Association, which consisted of a team of volunteers under the direction of Beard and Headley, Keeneland's first President.

On opening day, more than 8,000 fans came to the races — ranging from locals who simply wanted to see racing in their hometown for the first time in years to titans of business who brought their best bloodstock to compete. By the end of the nine-day meet, Keeneland had scraped by, losing just $3.47 in its first year. Lexington, a town of 46,000, had supported racing's comeback as the meet posted attendance of 25,337. And even with 15 million Americans out of work, those fans had taken a gamble or two, wagering more than $500,000.

As Headley said, "We want a place where those who love horses can come and picnic with us and thrill to the sport of the Bluegrass. We are not running a race plant to hear the click of the mutuel machines. We want them to come out here to enjoy God's sunshine, fresh air and to watch horses race."

Media Coverage: We're Here to Assist You

Keeneland strives to facilitate media coverage of its race meets and sales.

Extensive information about Keeneland is found on its website, Keeneland.com, which livestreams the track's Spring and Fall race meets and annual Thoroughbred auctions.

During race meets, Keeneland produces:

- Daily Barn Notes with news about upcoming stakes, horses and horsemen competing here, milestones, special events and other articles of interest; and
- Coverage of the day's feature race(s) and quotes from connections of horses participating in stakes.

For its auctions, wrap releases are distributed at the conclusion of each auction session.

Via its PhotoShelter site, Keeneland makes select photos and video from race days and sales available for editorial purposes. Information about accessing the PhotoShelter site is available by contacting the Communications Staff.

If you would like to receive Keeneland press materials via email or have any questions, please contact Director of Communications Gabby Gaudet (ggaudet@keeneland.com), Communications Manager Meredith Daughtery or Communications Associate Amy Owens (aowens@keeneland.com).

Darley Alcibiades Stakes (G1)

Sponsored by Darley

75th Running • Fall • 1 1/16 miles • 2-year-old fillies

The Alcibiades takes its name from the great foundation mare Alcibiades, who was owned by Hal Price Headley, one of Keeneland's founders. More than a dozen stakes winners, including Menow, Firm Policy, Salaminia, Lithe, Rash Statement, Secret Hello, Silent Account and Sir Ivor, descend from Alcibiades. Darley began sponsoring the race in 2003.

Appalachian Stakes (G2)

Presented by Japan Racing Association

38th Running • Spring • 1 mile (turf) • 3-year-old fillies

Named for the beloved mountainous region that includes Eastern Kentucky, the Appalachian debuted in 1989 as a 1 1/16-mile race on turf. The distance of the race became one mile in 1996. The Japan Racing Association has presented the race since 2013.

Milestones – Appalachian Stakes

2025 Purse: $500,000
Stakes Record: 1:33.97, Enola Gay, 2020
Largest Straight Payoff: $102.60, Afternoon Stroll, 2009
Smallest Straight Payoff: $2.80, Lady Eli, 2015
Largest Field: 12, 2007; 2024
Smallest Field: 5, 2006
Largest Value to Winner: $302,250, Nitrogen, 2025

Through 2016, Keeneland maintained separate course records for the Keeneland Course and the Haggin Course depending on the setting of a temporary rail. Beginning in 2017, Keeneland consolidated the course records into one set based solely on distance, not rail settings. (See page 230.)

Central Bank
Ashland Stakes® (G1)

Sponsored by Central Bank

88th Running • Spring • 1 1/16 miles • 3-year-old fillies

The Ashland Stakes and the Kentucky Association's Ashland Oaks were named for the Lexington homestead and breeding farm of statesman Henry Clay. The Ashland was inaugurated at Keeneland's first race meeting. The initial two runnings – at the fall meets of 1936 and 1937 – were for fillies and mares, 3-year-olds and upward. Discontinued for two years, the Ashland was revived in the spring of 1940 as an event exclusively for 3-year-old fillies. From 1943-1945, the Ashland was renewed as a part of the Keeneland-at-Churchill Downs meetings. Central Bank became the sponsor in 2010.

Ben Ali Stakes (G3)

95th Running • Spring • 1 3/16 miles • 4-year-olds and up

The Ben Ali Stakes, named for noted Thoroughbred breeder and financier James Ben Ali Haggin (1821-1914), had its inaugural running at the Kentucky Association track in Lexington in 1917. Last run there in 1922, the Ben Ali was revived at Keeneland in the spring of 1937. From 1943-1945, the Ben Ali was renewed as a part of the Keeneland-at-Churchill Downs meetings. From 1979-2022, the race was run at 1 1/8 miles and was extended to 1 3/16 miles in 2023.

After presenting the trophy to the connections of Ben Ali winner Tennessee Lamb, retiring Keeneland Director of Communications Amy Gregory was joined by family and friends.

Bewitch Stakes (G3)

Presented by Keeneland Sales

64th Running • Spring • 1 1/2 miles (turf) • 4-year-olds and up • fillies and mares

Bewitch was one of Calumet Farm's great race mares who retired in 1951 with earnings of $462,605. The Bewitch Stakes was inaugurated at Keeneland in the spring of 1962. From 1962-1978, the Bewitch was for 2-year-old fillies. From 1979-1985, the race matched fillies and mares, 3-year-olds and upward. Since 1986, the race has been run for fillies and mares, 4-year-olds and upward.

Milestones – Bewitch Stakes

2025 Purse: $350,000
Stakes Record: 2:27 2/5, Bursting Forth, 1999
Largest Straight Payoff: $106.80, Jolie Dutch, 1980
Smallest Straight Payoff: $2.60, Bold 'n Determined, 1981
Largest Field: 14, 2015
Smallest Field: 5, 1996; 2006; 2017; 2022; 2023
Largest Value to Winner: $211,575, Forever After All, 2025

Through 2016, Keeneland maintained separate course records for the Keeneland Course and the Haggin Course depending on the setting of a temporary rail. Beginning in 2017, Keeneland consolidated the course records into one set based solely on distance, not rail settings. (See page 230.)

Keeneland/Photos by Z

Favored Forever After All coasted to a 9-length victory in the Bewitch (G3) to equal the record winning margin for the race set by Shore in the first division in 1966.

Toyota Blue Grass Stakes® (G1)

Sponsored by Toyota

102nd Running • Spring • 1 1/8 miles • 3-year-olds

The Blue Grass Stakes was named for the Bluegrass region of Kentucky, which is characterized by grass having bluish-green culms and is known as the heart of the Thoroughbred breeding industry. First run at the Kentucky Association track in Lexington in 1911, the Blue Grass has, from its inception, served as an important prep for the Kentucky Derby. At the Association track, the Blue Grass was staged from 1911-1914 and 1919-1926. The race was revived at Keeneland in the spring of 1937. In 1943-1944, the Blue Grass was renewed as a part of the Keeneland-at-Churchill Downs meetings. In 1945, the Blue Grass was run as a part of the Churchill Downs meeting. Toyota became the sponsor in 1996. The purse of the race was $1 million in 2015-2019 and 2022-2024 and became $1.25 million in 2025.

Burnham Square nosed out East Avenue to win the Toyota Blue Grass (G1), which was run on a Tuesday. The race was rescheduled from the previous Saturday because of severe weather and significant rainfall in Central Kentucky.

Castle & Key Bourbon Stakes (G2)

Sponsored by Castle & Key Distillery

36th Running • Fall • 1 1/16 miles (turf) • 2-year-olds

The race is named for Bourbon County, home to some of North America's most productive Thoroughbred farms. The county is located north of Lexington and Paris is the county seat. Castle & Key Distillery, one of Central Kentucky's most popular distillery destinations, began to sponsor the Bourbon in 2021.

Claiborne Breeders' Futurity (G1)

Sponsored by Claiborne Farm

113th Running • Fall • 1 1/16 miles • 2-year-olds

The Breeders' Futurity was inaugurated at the Kentucky Association track in Lexington in 1910 and was renewed every year thereafter through 1930. In 1931-1933, the race was shifted to Latonia (now Turfway Park) in Northern Kentucky. The Futurity was revived at Keeneland in the fall of 1938. From 1943-1945, the Futurity was renewed as a part of the Churchill Downs fall meetings. Claiborne Farm of Paris, Kentucky, became the sponsor in 2014.

Bryan Station Stakes (G2)

22nd Running • Fall • 1 mile (turf) • 3-year-olds

The Bryan Station was named for a frontier fort near present-day Lexington that was the site of a battle between Kentucky settlers and British-led forces in 1782 near the end of the Revolutionary War. The settlers' successful defense of the fort is a chapter in Kentucky history. A historical marker and a monument commemorate the site.

Baird Doubledogdare Stakes (G2)

Sponsored by Baird

31st Running • Spring • 1 1/16 miles • 4-year-olds and up • fillies and mares

Claiborne Farm's Doubledogdare was an outstanding performer at Keeneland, winning the 1955 Alcibiades, 1956 Ashland and 1956 Spinster Stakes. Trained by the legendary Moody Jolley, Doubledogdare earned champion filly honors in 1955 and 1956. Hilliard Lyons, which joined Baird in 2019, has presented the Doubledogdare Stakes since 2011. Baird is proud to continue this tradition.

Rood & Riddle
Dowager Stakes (G3)

Sponsored by Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital

35th Running • Fall • 1 1/2 miles (turf) • 3-year-olds and up • fillies and mares

At 1½ miles on turf, the Fall Meet's longest race for older fillies and mares is the Dowager. The name of the race is a play off the definition of dowager: a woman of stately dignity. Rood & Riddle Equine Hospital of Lexington has sponsored the Dowager since 2003.

Milestones – Dowager Stakes

2025 Purse: $350,000
Stakes Record: 2:27.98, Temple City Terror, 2022
Largest Straight Payoff: $35.40, Senada, 2011
Smallest Straight Payoff: $3.40, Sudana, 1995
Largest Field: 14, 2014
Smallest Field: 6, 2010
Largest Value to Winner: $174,375, Temple City Terror, 2022

Through 2016, Keeneland maintained separate course records for the Keeneland Course and the Haggin Course depending on the setting of a temporary rail. Beginning in 2017, Keeneland consolidated the course records into one set based solely on distance, not rail settings. (See page 230.)

Venencia (FR) stalked the pace early then held off a late challenge from Bless My Stars (SAF) to win the Rood & Riddle Dowager.

VisitLEX Elkhorn Stakes (G2)

Sponsored by VisitLEX

41st Running • Spring • 1 1/2 miles (turf) • 4-year-olds and up

Elkhorn Creek is an 86-mile-long stream located in Central Kentucky that runs through Fayette, Scott, Woodford and Franklin Counties. At one time, a branch of South Elkhorn Creek ran through downtown Lexington, where the creek's directional flow was used to plot Main and other downtown streets. VisitLEX began to sponsor the race in 2024.

Former Keeneland President Bill Greely presented the trophy to the connections of Choisya (GB).

Jessamine Stakes (G2)

Presented by Keeneland Sales

36th Running • Fall • 1 1/16 miles (turf) • 2-year-old fillies

The stakes is named for Jessamine County, formed in 1799 and a center of agriculture and Thoroughbred farms. Located to the southeast of Lexington, its county seat is Nicholasville.

Milestones – Jessamine Stakes

2025 Purse: $400,000
Stakes Record: 1:40.86, Aunt Pearl (IRE), 2020
Largest Straight Payoff: $74, Moonwalk, 2012
Smallest Straight Payoff: $3.00, Paddy's Daisy, 2004
Largest Field: 14, 2015; 2017; 2019
Smallest Field: 7, 2006
Largest Value to Winner: $229,400, Imaginationthelady, 2025

Through 2016, Keeneland maintained separate course records for the Keeneland Course and the Haggin Course depending on the setting of a temporary rail. Beginning in 2017, Keeneland consolidated the course records into one set based solely on distance, not rail settings. (See page 230.)

Stonestreet Lexington Stakes (G3)

Sponsored by Stonestreet

44th Running • Spring • 1 1/16 miles • 3-year-olds

The Lexington first was contested by 2-year-olds during Keeneland's inaugural meeting in October 1936. The race was run as a handicap for 3-year-olds and older horses from 1938-1941. It returned to the stakes schedule in 1984 when officials elevated the Calumet Purse — an important allowance race for 3-year-olds — to an added-money event and renamed it the Lexington Stakes. Barbara Banke's Stonestreet began to sponsor the race in 2017.

Milestones – Lexington Stakes

2025 Purse: $400,000
Stakes Record: 1:41, Charismatic, 1999
Largest Straight Payoff: $143.20, All Squared Away, 2012
Smallest Straight Payoff: $2.60, Hansel, 1991
Largest Field: 14, 2004
Smallest Field: 4, 1991
Largest Value to Winner: $241,800, Gosger, 2025

Kentucky Gov. Andy Beshear presented the trophy to the connections of Gosger.

FanDuel Limestone Stakes (G3)

Sponsored by FanDuel

7th Running • Spring • 5 1/2 furlongs (turf) • 3-year-old fillies

Keeneland debuted the Limestone, a 5½-furlong turf race for 3-year-old fillies, during the 2019 Spring Meet. FanDuel (formerly TVG) began to sponsor the race in 2020.

Milestones – Limestone Stakes

2025 Purse: $300,000
Stakes Record: 1:02.29, Tobys Heart, 2021
Largest Straight Payoff: $18.20, Ruthin (GB), 2022
Smallest Straight Payoff: $3.98, Hot Beach, 2024
Largest Field: 12, 2019; 2025
Smallest Field: 8, 2021; 2022; 2024
Largest Value to Winner: $169,725, Shisospicy, 2025

Through 2016, Keeneland maintained separate course records for the Keeneland Course and the Haggin Course depending on the setting of a temporary rail. Beginning in 2017, Keeneland consolidated the course records into one set based solely on distance, not rail settings. (See page 230.)

Run on Polytrack from 2007-2014.
Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, Keeneland did not hold a 2020 Spring Meet but conducted a five-day Summer Meet from July 8-12. This race was run during the Summer Meet.

Maker's Mark Mile (G1)

Sponsored by Maker's Mark

38th Running • Spring • 1 mile (turf) • 4-year-olds and up

Maker's Mark, the world-famous bourbon distillery headquartered in Loretto, Ky., has sponsored the race since 1997.

Milestones – Maker's Mark Mile

2025 Purse: $650,000
Stakes Record: 1:33.46, Chez Pierre (FR), 2023
Largest Straight Payoff: $55.80, First and Only, 1994
Smallest Straight Payoff: $2.80, Wise Dan, 2013; Wise Dan, 2014
Largest Field: 11, 2017
Smallest Field: 5, 2013
Largest Value to Winner: $358,050, Shirl's Speight, 2022

Through 2016, Keeneland maintained separate course records for the Keeneland Course and the Haggin Course depending on the setting of a temporary rail. Beginning in 2017, Keeneland consolidated the course records into one set based solely on distance, not rail settings. (See page 230.)

Favored Carl Spackler (IRE) dominated the Maker's Mark Mile (G1), winning by a stakes-record 5 lengths. He joined Wise Dan (2012-2013) and Perfect Soul (IRE) (2003-2004) as the only horses to win the Turf Mile (G1) during the Fall Meet and come back the following April to win the Maker's Mark Mile. Owner e Five Racing Thoroughbreds earned a Keeneland Tray to recognize its eighth graded stakes win here as part of the track's Milestone Trophy Program.

Perryville Stakes (G3)

19th Running • Fall • 7 furlongs • 3-year-olds

The Perryville is named for the Civil War battle that occurred about an hour southwest of Lexington. Inaugurated at Keeneland in 1999, the race for 3-year-olds was run at about 7 furlongs from 1999-2002 and at 6 furlongs in 2015 and 2020. The 2015 and 2020 renewals were held on the undercard of the Breeders' Cup World Championships. Since 2021, the Perryville has been run at 7 furlongs.

Stoll Keenon Ogden
Phoenix Stakes (G2)

Sponsored by Stoll Keenon Ogden PLLC

174th Running • Fall • 6 furlongs • 3-year-olds and up

The Phoenix is the oldest stakes race in the U.S., dating back to 1831 at the Kentucky Association track in Lexington. Originally named for the old Phoenix Hotel in Lexington, the race has been known as the Brennan, Chiles, Phoenix, Association, Phoenix Hotel Stakes and Phoenix Handicap. Last run at the Association track in 1930, the Phoenix was revived at Keeneland in the spring of 1937. From 1943-1945, the Phoenix was renewed as part of the Keeneland-at-Churchill Downs meetings. Prior to 1989, the Phoenix was run during the Spring Meet. Stoll Keenon Ogden PLLC, the only legal counsel Keeneland has had, became the sponsor in 2011.

Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup (G1)

Presented by Dixiana

43rd Running • Fall • 1 1/8 miles (turf) • 3-year-old fillies

The Challenge Cup was inaugurated on Oct. 11, 1984, in honor of Britain's Queen Elizabeth II, who attended the races and presented a trophy on that date during her private visit to Central Kentucky. Dixiana has presented the race since 2020.

Through 2016, Keeneland maintained separate course records for the Keeneland Course and the Haggin Course depending on the setting of a temporary rail. Beginning in 2017, Keeneland consolidated the course records into one set based solely on distance, not rail settings. (See page 230.)

Valvoline Global Shakertown Stakes (G2)

Sponsored by Valvoline Global

30th Running • Spring • 5 1/2 furlongs (turf) • 3-year-olds and up

Shakertown, located 25 miles southwest of Lexington, is America's largest and most completely restored Shaker community and living museum. A national historic landmark, Shakertown also is known as Shaker Village of Pleasant Hill. Valvoline Global began sponsoring the Shakertown in 2025.

Milestones – Shakertown Stakes

2025 Purse: $400,000
Stakes Record: 1:00.86, Leinster, 2020
Largest Straight Payoff: $74.40, G.H.'s Pleasure, 1997
Smallest Straight Payoff: $3.20, Golden Pal, 2022
Largest Field: 13, 2019; 2020
Smallest Field: 8, 2007
Largest Value to Winner: $232,500, Think Big, 2025

Through 2016, Keeneland maintained separate course records for the Keeneland Course and the Haggin Course depending on the setting of a temporary rail. Beginning in 2017, Keeneland consolidated the course records into one set based solely on distance, not rail settings. (See page 230.)

Sycamore Stakes (G2)

32nd Running • Fall • 1 1/2 miles (turf) • 3-year-olds and up

The Sycamore is named in honor of the tall, stately tree that stands at the edge of Keeneland's Paddock. The race has been contested at 1 1/2 miles (2001-2010, 2012, 2014-present) and 1 5/8 miles (1995-2000, 2011, 2013).

Milestones – Sycamore Stakes

2025 Purse: $400,000
Stakes Record: 2.26.08, Highway Robber, 2024
Largest Straight Payoff: $70.90, Desvio, 2025
Smallest Straight Payoff: $3.60, Royal Strand (IRE), 1999
Largest Field: 12, 2009; 2010; 2016; 2017; 2022; 2023
Smallest Field: 4, 1996
Largest Value to Winner: $174,375, Desvio, 2025

Through 2016, Keeneland maintained separate course records for the Keeneland Course and the Haggin Course depending on the setting of a temporary rail. Beginning in 2017, Keeneland consolidated the course records into one set based solely on distance, not rail settings. (See page 230.)

Keeneland/Photos by Z

At odds of 34-1, Keeneland sales graduate Desvio won the Sycamore (G2).

Grade 3, 2003-2024. Grade 2, 2025.
Run at 1 5/8 miles from 1995-2000; 1 1/2 miles from 2001-present.
In 2013, rain forced the race off the turf to be run at 1 5/8 miles on the main track. As a result, the race lost its grade.

Thoroughbred Club of America Stakes (G2)

46th Running • Fall • 6 furlongs • 3-year-olds and up • fillies and mares

The Thoroughbred Club of America is headquartered in Lexington. The race evolved from the TCA Dinner Purse, which was run as an allowance race each spring from 1941-1980, with the exception of 1945. The race became a stakes in 1981 and through 1985 was restricted to horses owned by TCA members. In 1995, the race was moved to the Fall Meet.

Woodford Stakes (G2)

Presented by FanDuel

30th Running • Fall • 5 1/2 furlongs (turf) • 3-year-olds and up

The race is named for Woodford County, home to some of the most successful Thoroughbred farms in the world. Located west of Keeneland, the county seat is Versailles. FanDuel (formerly TVG) first sponsored the race in 2020.

Milestones – Woodford Stakes

2025 Purse: $400,000
Stakes Record: 1:01.39, Golden Pal, 2022
Largest Straight Payoff: $55.20, Bucchero, 2017
Smallest Straight Payoff: $2.74, Golden Pal, 2022
Largest Field: 12, 2006; 2008; 2011; 2016; 2023; 2024
Smallest Field: 6, 2012
Largest Value to Winner: $198,013, Arzak, 2023

Through 2016, Keeneland maintained separate course records for the Keeneland Course and the Haggin Course depending on the setting of a temporary rail. Beginning in 2017, Keeneland consolidated the course records into one set based solely on distance, not rail settings. (See page 230.)

Dean Dorton Myrtlewood Stakes History

7th Running • Fall • 6 furlongs • 2-year-old fillies • 2025 Purse: $250,000

The Myrtlewood is named for the Racing Hall of Famer and influential broodmare. In October 1936 during Keeneland's inaugural race meet of nine days, Myrtlewood won three races, including taking the Ashland Stakes by 12 lengths. Dean Dorton began to sponsor the race in 2025.

Palisades Stakes History

7th Running • Spring • 5 1/2 furlongs (turf) • 3-year-olds • 2025 Purse: $300,000

Keeneland debuted the Palisades, a 5½-furlong turf race for 3-year-olds, during the 2019 Spring Meet. In 2025, the Palisades was rained off the turf course and run at 5½ furlongs on the sloppy main track. Because of the surface change, the race lost its listed status and was run as a black-type event.

Keeneland Milestone Trophy Program

Keeneland offers a Milestone Trophy Program that features several levels of recognition for owners whose horses win graded stakes and excel at the highest level of competition:

- Owners of horses that win graded stakes races receive a Keeneland Trophy Cup.
- Once an owner accumulates eight Keeneland Trophy Cups, he or she is awarded a Keeneland Tray.
- Another eight Trophy Cups earns the owner a Keeneland Pitcher.
- Eight more graded stakes wins earns the owner a Keeneland Bowl.
- Eight more (32 graded stakes wins total) earns the coveted Keeneland Vase.

If the winning owner is a partnership, the primary partner will receive credit for the Milestone Trophy count. The primary partner will be the owner whose silks the horse carries in the stakes.

Trophy Cups are crafted by Wakefield-Scearce Gallery in Shelbyville, Kentucky.

The Milestone Trophy Tray, Pitcher, Bowl and Vase are handcrafted by Tiffany & Co. The vermeil pieces are made of sterling silver and hand engraved before being dipped in 24K gold and hand polished.

From the 1952 Fall Meet, when the Milestone Trophy Program was inaugurated, through 1993, Keeneland presented a Trophy Cup to the winning owners of nearly every major stakes race. A Tray was awarded with the sixth stakes victory and a Pitcher with the 12th win. The number of Trophy Cups required to win each Milestone Trophy was increased from six to eight prior to the 1994 Spring Meet to reflect the increased number of graded stakes races.

Spring Meets of 1943-1945 were held at Churchill Downs.
Because of the COVID-19 pandemic, Keeneland did not hold a 2020 Spring Meet but conducted a five-day Summer Meet from July 8-12.
The 2025 Spring Meet was slated to begin Friday, April 4, but severe storms and flooding rainfall in the region forced Keeneland officials to reschedule the opening two days. The season was held April 6-25 with eight consecutive race days to start.

Track Records on Dirt

The 2014 Fall Meet marked the first season of a new dirt surface on Keeneland's 1 1/16-mile main track. The track was structurally reconfigured in the summer of 2006 to widen the turns and lengthen the stretch. As a result, dirt track records prior to the 2006 Fall Meet are not comparable to times set on the new dirt surface. A new set of track records was established during the 2014 Fall Meet.

Following are the track records on dirt and the turf course records.

Course Records

Keeneland's turf course debuted during the 1985 Fall Meet.

Through 2016, Keeneland had two names for the turf course. The Keeneland Course referred to the course when a temporary rail was placed a certain number of feet from the permanent inside rail to save wear and tear on the innermost portion of the turf course (often referred to as "rail up"). When the temporary rail was not used ("rail down"), the course was called the Haggin Course, named for Louis Lee Haggin II, Keeneland's President from 1940-1956. Keeneland recognized course records for the various distances and rail settings.

For the 2016 Fall Meet, Keeneland replaced the inside rail on the Haggin Course with a portable rail that can be placed a variety of distances to protect the inside portion of the turf course. Beginning with the 2017 Spring Meet, Keeneland consolidated the course records into one set based solely on distance, not rail settings.

The Haggin Course remains the name of Keeneland's turf course.

Simulcast Wagering

Keeneland has participated in intertrack wagering since 1988 and full-card simulcasting since 1994. With the opening of the Fall Meet on Oct. 8, 1988, Keeneland began sending its races to Turfway Park, Ellis Park and Bluegrass Downs. Dueling Grounds (now Kentucky Downs) was added in April 1990.

Keeneland first served as a receiving track on Nov. 30, 1988, taking races from Turfway Park.

Intertrack wagering was held in the Sales Pavilion through the 1989 Ellis Park meeting. Simulcasting was held in the Grandstand from the combination Breeders' Cup-Churchill Downs program on Nov. 4, 1989, until July 15, 2015, when Keeneland's year-round simulcast operations moved to Red Mile in a partnership with the historic Standardbred track near downtown Lexington.

Red Mile offers Thoroughbred, harness and Quarter Horse simulcast wagering in one location. Keeneland continues to offer simulcast wagering during the track's Spring and Fall race meets, annual Thoroughbred auctions (in limited areas) and the Kentucky Derby (G1).

The world's largest Thoroughbred auction house, Keeneland sells more champions and stakes winners than any other sales company while offering state-of-the-art facilities and a range of amenities for its diverse international clients. Keeneland conducts a total of six annual sales, five of which are on site: January Horses of All Ages, April Selected Horses of Racing Age, September Yearling, November Breeding Stock and November Horses of Racing Age. Not only a chief barometer of the state of the Thoroughbred industry, the September Sale also is a significant economic driver for Central Kentucky breeders.

In 2024, Keeneland increased the number of auctions it conducts with the addition of the inaugural Championship Sale. The event offers the opportunity to acquire high-value racehorses and breeding stock. The Championship Sale is unique in that it will take place alongside the Breeders' Cup. Keeneland will hold the auction Oct. 28, preceding the Oct. 30-31 World Championships here.

World comes to Keeneland

Foreign investors come to Central Kentucky — specifically to Keeneland — to buy broodmares and enhance the commercial appeal of their stock. American pedigrees carry speed, and foreign breeders want to infuse that speed into their horses back home. Their Keeneland purchases form the foundation bloodlines for Thoroughbreds in Central and South America, Australia, Asia, the Middle East, South Africa, Russia, India and elsewhere.

Keeneland employs a year-round outreach strategy to recruit buyers from across the U.S. and all corners of the world. Sales staff travel throughout the year and work closely with Keeneland representatives in Europe, Australasia and Japan.

The racing and breeding world is small thanks to this globalization, which includes the proliferation of stallions shuttling between Northern and Southern hemispheres and the popularity of Americans teaming with foreign partners to race in the U.S. and abroad. This cross-pollination is healthy for the entire industry.

Measures of the success of Keeneland sales include producing:

- 24 Kentucky Derby (G1) winners, 27 Preakness (G1) winners and 24 Belmont (G1) winners.
- 134 horses that have won 145 races during the Breeders' Cup World Championships. In 2025, these graduates of Keeneland's on-site auctions won Breeders' Cup races: Nysos (Dirt Mile), Shisospicy (Turf Sprint), Super Corredora (Juvenile Fillies) and Ted Noffey (Juvenile). Shisospicy and Ted Noffey received Eclipse Awards as North American champions.

History of Keeneland sales

The concept of Keeneland serving as a sales facility and a race track was expressed in its original prospectus created in the mid-1930s. The first auction was held in the Keeneland Paddock on April 25, 1938, under the management of E.J. Tranter and his Lexington representative, Thomas Cromwell. A total of 31 horses grossed $24,885, for an average of $802.74.

Keeneland began holding annual sales in 1943. Prior to World War II, many Central Kentucky breeders sent their yearlings each summer to the Fasig-Tipton sale in Saratoga Springs, New York. But a wartime restriction on rail transport forced breeders to keep their yearlings at home, prompting the inaugural summer sale, which was conducted by Fasig-Tipton and held under a tent in the Keeneland Paddock. Beginning Aug. 9, the three-day sale was front-page news in the Lexington Herald. Fred W. Hooper purchased his first yearling at the sale, paying $10,200 for a colt by Sir Gallahad III. Named Hoop, Jr., the colt went on to win the 1945 Kentucky Derby.

Fasig-Tipton elected not to hold the 1944 yearling sale at Keeneland, so Hal Price Headley and A.B. Hancock Sr. conceived a co-op organization, the Breeders' Sales Company, to continue the sale in Lexington. From that sale came both juvenile champions of 1945: the filly Beaugay and the colt Star Pilot. A total of 437 horses sold for $2,286,000, a record total for a yearling sale.

In 1961, Keeneland and the Breeders' Sales Company merged into a single corporate enterprise.

The September Sale became Keeneland's only yearling sale beginning in 2003 with the discontinuation of the July Selected Yearling Sale.

Here is a recap of each Keeneland auction:

April Selected Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale

Begun in 1993 as a sale for 2-year-olds in training, the April Sale became an auction for horses of racing age in 2021. The sale typically is held after the races on closing day of the Spring Meet, bridging racing and sales and capitalizing on the energy of the racing season.

This year's April Sale is April 24 at 6:30 p.m.

September Yearling Sale

The September Sale offers the cream of the North American Thoroughbred foal crop and attracts the world's most prominent owners and trainers to select horses capable of making history. (A list of Eclipse Award-winning graduates of the sale is on page 295.)

The 2025 September Sale sold 3,078 horses for a total of $531.7 million for the highest gross ever realized at a Thoroughbred auction anywhere in the world.

2025 is record year for Keeneland sales

Thoroughbred auctions conducted by Keeneland had a record year in 2025 with total sales of nearly $836 million for 5,955 lots at five on-site auctions and one off-site event. Bolstering figures was a spectacular September Yearling Sale, which posted a record $531.7 million in sales for 3,078 horses — the highest gross ever realized at a Thoroughbred auction worldwide.

"This year marked a watershed moment for Keeneland sales," Keeneland President and CEO Shannon Arvin said. "From a record-shattering September Yearling Sale that topped $500 million in gross sales to the continued momentum into an outstanding November Breeding Stock Sale, the confidence in this marketplace has never been stronger.

"These successes speak to Keeneland's position as the world's marketplace, but more importantly, they highlight the strength of our customers," Arvin continued. "These are the achievements of the breeders, sellers and buyers who place their trust in Keeneland year after year."

"The results of this sale reflect a shared achievement for the industry and a powerful source of optimism for the future of racing and breeding," Keeneland Vice President of Sales Tony Lacy said. "Many factors contributed to these record-setting results beyond the exceptional quality of horses on offer. Strong purses, favorable tax legislation, growing confidence in the sport and broader national visibility through broadcast, streaming and influencers all point to a bright future for our industry."

Championship Sale

Keeneland added a sixth event to its auction schedule in 2024 with the inaugural Championship Sale, an opportunity for people to acquire high-value racehorses and breeding stock. Held several days at the track that will host the Breeders' Cup World Championships, the event features a large crowd of participants, spirited bidding and a party atmosphere.

November Breeding Stock Sale

The November Breeding Stock Sale – which catalogs broodmares, broodmare prospects, weanlings, horses of racing age, stallions and stallion prospects – is a globally important source of quality bloodstock. Some of the industry's top broodmares and broodmare prospects have sold at the sale.

The strength of the November Sale is credited with prompting more commercial breeders to reinvest in broodmares and with encouraging end users (buyers who intend to race their purchases) and pinhookers (buyers who intend to resell their purchases) to reinvest in weanlings at the auction.

The history of the November Sale features a number of noteworthy events, such as the dispersals of the Estate of Edward P. Evans' Spring Hill Farm and Prince Saud bin Khaled's Palides Investments N.V in 2011 (page 282).

The 2015, 2020 and 2022 November Sales immediately followed the Breeders' Cup at Keeneland. This year's auction begins Nov. 3 following the World Championships here on Oct. 30-31.

November Horses of Racing Age Sale

In 2022, Keeneland created a stand-alone auction for horses of racing age to be held after the conclusion of the November Breeding Stock Sale. Previously, this segment of the market was offered during the November Breeding Stock Sale.

January Horses of All Ages Sale

As one of the final sales of top-quality breeding stock before breeding season begins, the January Sale catalogs broodmares, broodmare prospects, newly turned yearlings, horses of racing age, stallions and stallion prospects.

At the 2026 auction, which covered two days, total sales of $53.9 million for 702 horses were the highest for the auction since 2008.

January Horses of All Ages Sale

70th Annual

Keeneland inaugurated the January Horses of All Ages Sales in the 1950s, conducting the first editions of the sale in 1956 and 1957. Following a three-year hiatus, the January Sale resumed in 1961 and has been held annually since. As the name implies, the January Horses of All Ages Sale offers a variety of racing and breeding stock, including broodmares, broodmare prospects, yearlings, horses of racing age, stallions and stallion prospects, and stallion shares and seasons.

Tiffany Case, dam of Nitrogen — champion 3-year-old filly of 2025 — in foal to Not This Time, sold for $3.2 million to Mandy Pope's Whisper Hill Farm to record the highest price of the 2026 January Sale. The gross of $53.9 million was the highest for the auction since 2008.

April Selected Horses of Racing Age Sale

6th Annual

The April Sale concentrates on the racing segment of the market.

From 1993-2014, the auction was for 2-year-olds in training. Graduates included six North American classic winners: Belmont winner Palace Malice, Preakness winner and champion Lookin At Lucky; Kentucky Derby and Preakness winner and champion Big Brown; Kentucky Derby and Belmont winner and champion Thunder Gulch; and Kentucky Oaks winners Keeper Hill and Gal in a Ruckus. The 2014 auction produced champions Lady Eli and Roy H.

The 1997 auction sold 12 older horses of racing age in the dispersal of Jack Kent Cooke/ Elmendorf Farm. The 2004 auction sold seven older horses of racing age from Eaton Sales, agent for the Estate of Jeanne G. Vance.Keeneland resumed the April Sale in 2019 and included an offering of horses of racing age. Among them was Higher Power, who sold for $250,000 and went on to win that year's $1 million TVG Pacific Classic (G1) and earn nearly $1.6 million.

The 2020 auction was canceled because of the COVID-19 pandemic. The sale returned in 2021 as an auction for horses of racing age. In 2022, the event was held the evening of closing day of the Spring Meet. The final offering in the auction was a share in the stallion Upstart purchased by Mike Freeny for $450,000.

The April Sale is held after the races on closing day of the Spring Meet.

Keeneland/Photos by Z

The most expensive horse sold through the ring in 2025 was Normandy Coast, who 19 days earlier won Keeneland's Palisades. He was consigned by Kenneally Racing, agent, and sold to Steven Judy for $355,000.

Through a post sale, the $375,000 sale topper was stakes-placed Masmak.

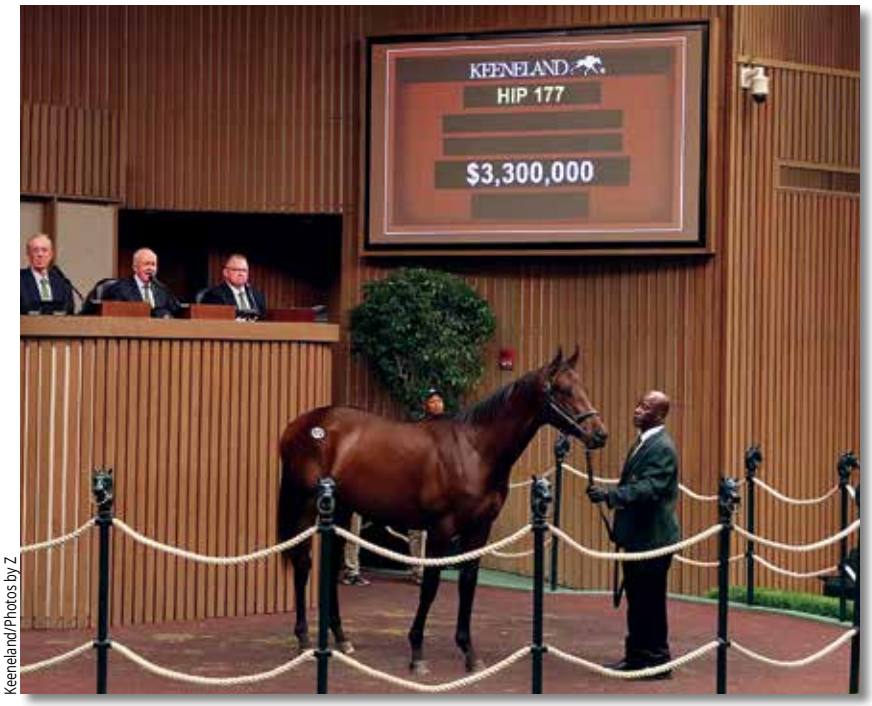
September Yearling Sale

83rd Annual



Keeneland/Photos by Z

The Keeneland September Yearling Sale has evolved from humble beginnings to become the global marketplace for Thoroughbred yearlings. The 2025 auction rewrote records by selling 3,070 horses for $531.5 million, the highest gross ever realized at a Thoroughbred auction worldwide.

From 1944, the inaugural year, through 1948, the fall yearlings were sold in an auction which included broodmares, weanlings, stallions and horses of other ages. In 1949, approximately half of the yearlings were sold in a separate October sale and the remainder in a November mixed stock sale as usual. In 1950, the yearlings were sold separately by session, but in the same week as the other stock. In 1951, the fall yearling sales were set farther apart from the fall mixed stock sale, with the yearling auctions preceding the other sale by a week or more. In 1960, the yearling sales were moved to September. In 1981, the yearling sale was held in two four-day segments. Selected sessions were inaugurated in 1989.

Historic highlights of the 2025 auction included 56 yearlings bringing seven figures, besting the previous record of 40 set in 2005 and led by a $3.3 million Gun Runner colt purchased by M.V. Magnier, Peter Brant's White Birch Farm and Ron Winchell's Winchell Thoroughbreds.

Championship Sale

3rd Annual

Keeneland added a sixth event to its auction schedule in 2024: the Championship Sale, an opportunity for people to acquire high-value racehorses and breeding stock such as interests in starters in the Breeders' Cup World Championships and breeding rights to leading stallions. No horses appear at the Championship Sale, which is is held at the track that hosts the Breeders' Cup two days before the races and features a large crowd of participants, spirited bidding and a party atmosphere.

At the 2025 Championship Sale, Michael and Jules Iavarone went to $1 million to secure a 25% fractional interest in Bentornato, the morning-line favorite for the $2 million Cygames Breeders' Cup Sprint (G1). Three days later, Bentornato won the 6-furlong race by 2¼ lengths.

History of the Championship Sale

Year	Lots Sold	Gross	Top Price	Consignor	Purchaser
2025	7	$7,675,000	$3 million for stallion share in Not This Time, including all income from stallion's 2025 breeding season	Taylor Made Sales Agency, agent for Aaron and Marie Jones	Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa
2024	5	$4,325,000	$2.5 million for stallion share in Flightline	Lane's End, agent	Summer Wind Equine

Here are a few scenes from the second Championship Sale at Del Mar two days before the 2025 Breeders' Cup. At left, retiring trainer Ignacio Correas Jr. (red pants) is in a celebratory group. At right, Frank Taylor of Taylor Made Sales Agency (aqua coat) congratulates John G. Sikura after Sikura's Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa paid $3 million for a stallion share in Not This Time, who stands at Taylor Made Farm. Hill 'n' Dale at Xalapa also paid $1 million for a 20% fractional interest in reigning Horse of the Year Thorpedo Anna. This year's Championship Sale will be held Oct. 28 at Keeneland, which will host the Breeders' Cup on Oct. 30-31.

November Breeding Stock Sale

Keeneland/Photos by Z

The November Breeding Stock Sale is the world's premier Thoroughbred auction of its type in terms of total sales and average. The sale, conducted annually since 1944, includes broodmares, weanlings, horses of racing age, racing and broodmare prospects, stallions, stallion shares and seasons. With the exception of the early years and dispersals, yearlings have not been sold during November.

The 2015, 2020 and 2022 November Sales immediately followed the Breeders' Cup World Championships at Keeneland.

A half-hour prior to the start of the opening session of the 2022 November Sale, spectators packed the Keeneland Sales Pavilion for the offering of a 2.5 percent ownership interest in future Horse of the Year Flightline, a colt by Tapit and the undefeated winner of the Breeders' Cup Classic (G1) two days earlier. Brookdale Farm's Freddy Seitz, bidding on behalf of an undisclosed farm client, signed the ticket for $4.6 million.

Lush Lips (GB), who won Keeneland's Queen Elizabeth II Challenge Cup (G1) Presented by Dixiana less than a month earlier, sold for $3.7 million to Dixiana Farm to top the 2025 November Sale. She next won the Mrs. Revere (G2) at Churchill Downs.

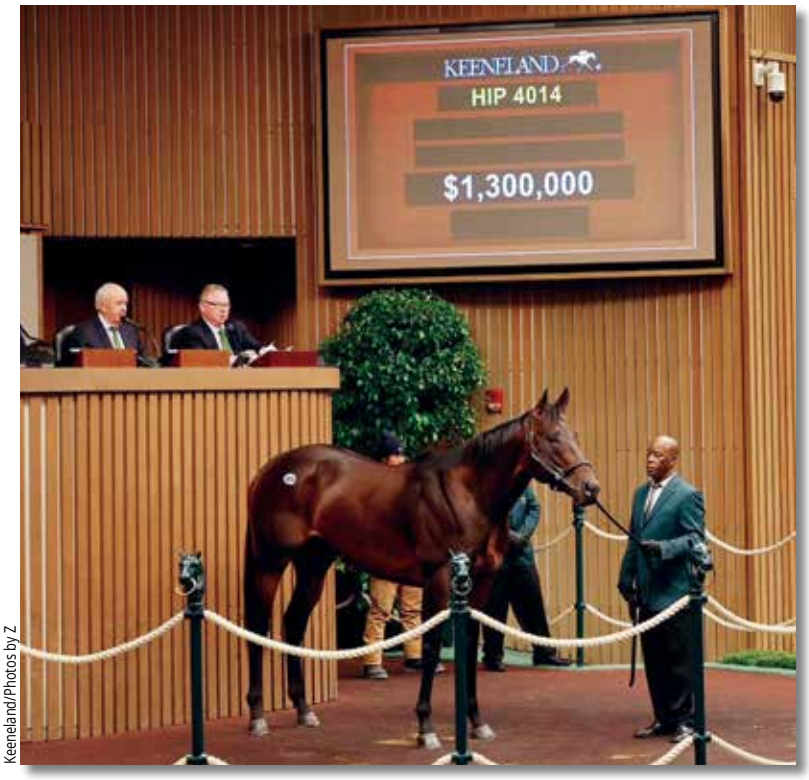
November Horses of Racing Age Sale

5th Annual



Keeneland/Photos by Z

Horses of racing age formerly were included in the November Breeding Stock Sale. In 2022, Keeneland debuted a stand-alone auction for this segment of the market.

Less than a month after selling for $1.3 million at the 2025 November Horses of Racing Age Sale, Grade 3 winner Bishops Bay won the Cigar Mile (G2) at Aqueduct.

July Selected Yearling Sale

The July Selected Yearling Sale, previously known as the summer yearling sale, was held annually from 1943-2002. Wartime restrictions on rail transportation of yearlings to the East led to the inaugural sale, which took place under a tent in the Keeneland Paddock. The July Selected Yearling Sale has not been conducted since 2002. That final July Sale produced European champion One Cool Cat, the sale-topper at $3.1 million, and Eclipse Award-winning juvenile colt Action This Day.

Milestones

Highest Price Paid for a Colt: $13,100,000 for Seattle Dancer (Nijinsky II–My Charmer), purchased by BBA (England), consigned by Warner L. Jones, Jr. in 1985.
Highest Price Paid for a Filly: $3,750,000 for Alchaasibiyeh (Seattle Slew–Fine Prospect), purchased by Darley Stud Management, consigned by Spendthrift Farm in 1984.
Highest Average for Horses in Sale: $710,247 for 89 horses in 2001.
Highest Average for a Consignor: $2,433,750 for 8 yearlings sold by Warner L. Jones, Jr. in 1985.
Highest Average for a Sire: $3,446,666 for 12 yearlings by Northern Dancer in 1984.
Most Yearlings Sold: 437 in 1944.
Least Yearlings Sold: 87 in 2002.
Largest Sum of Money for a Consignor: In the 1985 Keeneland July Selected Yearling Sale, Warner L. Jones Jr. sold 8 yearlings for $19,470,000, the largest sum received by a single consignor in the history of the sale.
