RULES AND REGULATIONS

AT KEENELAND

Keeneland management and uniformed Lexington police officers actively patrol the Keeneland grounds and parking areas on live race days. Laws pertaining to disorderly conduct and underage drinking are strictly enforced.

Signage taller than 8ft is not permitted. Keeneland reserves the exclusive right, at its sole discretion, to remove or modify any products, signage or materials placed on its premises that it deems to be problematic, violent, offensive, inappropriate, or contrary to Keeneland's values, mission, or public image. This includes, but is not limited to, signage that may conflict with legal requirements, Keeneland policies (including without height limitations), or community standards. Keeneland is not obligated to provide prior notice or justification for the removal or alteration of such items.

Weapons of any kind are strictly prohibited across the Keeneland grounds. Animals cannot be left unattended at anytime and must remain on a leash.

All parking areas are open on race days 8 a.m. to 60 minutes following the last race. All vehicles must be removed by 10 a.m. the following day
