ABOUT KEENELAND SALES

Undeclared 2018 Triple Crown winner Justify is among the outstanding horses who have sold at Keeneland, the world's leading Thoroughbred auction house that provides state-of-the-art facilities and a range of amenities for its diverse international clientele.

Justify, who was foaled in Central Kentucky at Glennwood Farm, sold for $500,000 in 2016 at Keeneland's September Yearling Sale, the world's most important Thoroughbred auction.

In 2018, Keeneland conducted three sales – January Horses of All Ages, September Yearling and November Breeding Stock – and sold a total of 6,363 horses for $600,634,700.

Each year, buyers from nearly every state and as many as 50 countries on six continents participate in Keeneland sales. The depth and breadth of this buying bench, assembled by Keeneland's sales team as part of a global, year-round marketing and recruitment effort, set the auction house apart from its competitors. Sales staff travel throughout the year and work closely with Keeneland representatives in Europe, Australasia, China and Japan.

Because American Thoroughbreds are prized for their speed, international investors come to Keeneland to enhance their stock. Their Keeneland purchases excel at major races and form the foundation bloodlines for Thoroughbreds around the world.

In 2019, Keeneland will conduct a fourth auction when it resumes the April Two-Year-Olds in Training and Horses of Racing Age Sale.

APRIL TWO-YEAR-OLDS IN TRAINING SALE

From 1993-2014, the April Two-Year-Olds in Training Sale featured a small, select catalog of top-quality 2-year-olds sold during a single-session auction held on a non-racing day early in the Spring Meet. Graduates include six North American classic winners: Belmont (G1) winner Palace Malice; Preakness (G1) winner and champion Lookin At Lucky; Kentucky Derby (G1) and Preakness winner and champion Big Brown; Kentucky Derby and Belmont winner and champion Thunder Gulch; and Kentucky Oaks (G1) winners Keeper Hill and Gal in a Ruckus.

Keeneland resumed the sale in 2019 and included an offering of horses of racing age.
